D E D I C A T I O N

Seventeen years ago, you, as a young teacher, entered the doors of Marietta High School. Since then you have won the heart of every teacher and student here at MHS. In your many fruitful years as an English teacher you have made many lasting friends among our faculty. They know you as a ready friend — one who is willing to laugh at every opportunity. The students will remember you for many things: the extra help you cheerfully gave us after school in preparing our English assignments, the hours you spent patiently trying to develop our talents in speaking and writing, your regular interest in our future activities. And who could ever forget the lines and lines of poetry you drummed into our heads, or the thrill of knowing you in another way — as our Beta Club sponsor, always working hard to keep our standards high and forever behind us in all projects we planned. We cannot forget you. Your life of friendliness and understanding is one by which we could all profit. We shall always be able to recall your warm, friendly smile, your devoted school loyalty, and your high, Christian example. It is especially for these memorable things that we, the 1959 Olympian staff, proudly dedicate our book to you

M I S S C L A R A N O L E N

Understanding, patience, long hours after school — these three qualities were among the outstanding ones exhibited by our superintendent, Mr. Antley, and our principal, Mrs. Swain. We are all sorry to see them go, but we know that the qualities of leadership and determination they instilled in us will long be remembered here at MHS.

EDUCATORS

The Board of Education carried out many goals this year. Always showing interest and enthusiasm in every phase of school life, they succeeded in both conducting a well-rounded school year and anticipating future needs for growth.

On their shoulders lay the almost impossible task of finding someone to take Mr. Antley's place when, at the end of this year, he retired as Superintendent of City Schools after seventeen years of excellent contributions. We were all pleased to learn that our own Mr. Kemp was chosen for this important position. Mr. Kemp, a native of Marietta, has worked in the Marietta school system for nine years as coach, teacher, principal, and assistant to the superintendent.

For a number of years the eighth grade situation has been approached in various ways. Although this year the eighth grades were at MHS, the Board plans to relieve the crowded school by moving the eighth grades away from the high school.

Our Board of Education was one of the main influences on the progress of our school this year. One project of the Board which pleased the student body was the remodeling of the Northcutt football stadium.

The annual dinner prepared and served by the home economics department for the Board, the Administration, and their wives is always an enjoyable affair. The Future Homemakers of America, using a Valentine Day theme, presented a delightful and delicious meal.

Dr. C.E. Williams, druggist, is chairman of the Board of Education. The board members include B.C. Yates, J.F. Shaw, Mack Smithweck, Dempsey Medford, Jr., E.L. Hobbs and Dr. L.J. Carpenter. Mr. Smithweck and Dr. Carpenter are resigning this year after years of active service. Mr. A.D. McGaughey (not pictured) is the newest member of the board.

GUIDE MHS

The new cement stands will increase the seating capacity of the stadium

The administration earnestly strived to conduct a school year that was adequate for each student and that would keep Marietta an outstanding school in the state of Georgia. Maintaining high standards of school administration, several capable leaders guided our school lives this year

As principal, Mrs. Fred Swain worked with both the faculty and the students to improve the quality of instruction at MHS. She was interested in all facets of our lives. Upon the completion of this year's work Mrs. Swain planned to devote her valuable time and energy to a very important job—that of assistant to the superintendent for Marietta City schools. Mrs. Swain's main duty would be the co-ordination of school curriculum

Mr. L. C. Cox will be MHS's new principal. During his five years at MHS as coach and assistant principal, he learned about many areas of our school life

Ever mindful of our needs, our leaders did much to make our school days full of memories we will always treasure through our lives.

Mr. Shuler Antley, B.S. graduate of the Citadel Military College and L.L.B. graduate of Atlanta Law School, is retiring after thirty-one years of dedication and service in the field of education. As Marietta City School Superintendent for seventeen years, he has excelled both as a builder of better school facilities and a builder of the minds, bodies, and personalities of young people. Mr. Antley says, "I hope to continue to serve in the educational field as best I can"

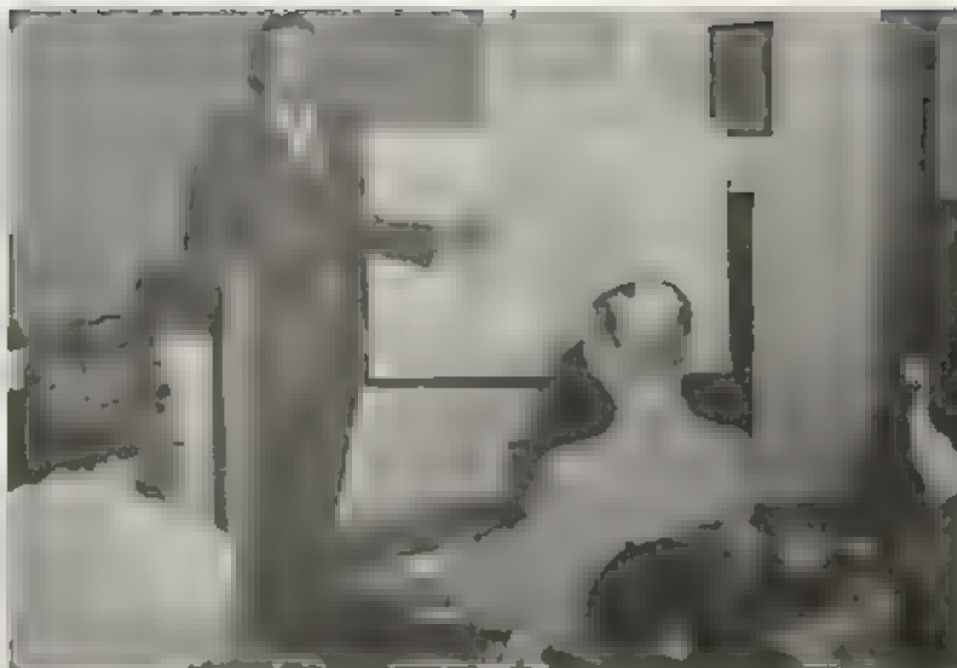

Mr. Henry L. Kemp, as assistant to the superintendent for the past two years, co-ordinated the curriculum for Marietta city schools. Mr. Lloyd Cox is assistant principal at MHS. He directs many phases of our school life

Best wishes, L. C. Cox

Mrs. Fred Swain MHS principal for ten years, is a leading educator.

"This is New York," Mr. Anderson tells a class of interested parents who accepted the PTA's invitation to visit the school and the teachers. Each parent followed the schedule of his child. Another night parents and teachers "talked turkey" about the different grade levels and the curriculum at MHS.

Mrs. Howell talks with Eleta Cox and her mother about a project. This is part of the PTA's program.

PTA CHOOSES

"Now is the time," insists the Marietta PTA. "Now is the time for MHS parents to place themselves in the position of the student and learn the opportunities, the courses, and the teachers at the school of their children." The parent-teacher association put forth much effort to carry out its goal for this year.

Realizing the importance and necessity of the parent, teacher, and student working together, the PTA worked endlessly to bring the home and school closer together. The officers and members, ably led by Mrs. Tumlin, had quite a lively interest in this worthwhile theme.

Throughout the year a program of interest to every parent was presented at each monthly meeting. The annual Parent's Night drew a record crowd again this year. An impressive crowd also attended a special forum on the school's grading system.

PTA President, Mrs. Sigman Tumlin, Mrs. Swain and Mrs. Guy Roberts discuss future plans and programs for the PTA.

Mrs. J. H. Bell, PTA president, supervises the taping of the Glee Club radio program. Similar programs were presented throughout the school year.

At the PTA tea in her honor, Mrs. Christine Hutcheson photographs a copy of her book, 'Off the High Horse', for Mrs. Steve Tumlin. The tea was a great success.

YEAR'S GOALS

In April the yearly Science Fair was opened to the parents, who visited the science department to view the many interesting projects. A thought-provoking program was presented by the Science Club.

The subfreshmen enjoyed a dance early in the year presented by the PTA especially for the eighth graders and their dates.

In the fall Mrs. James T. Anderson entertained the faculty at a tea. Later in the year the PTA honored Mrs. Christine Hutcheson, an outstanding teacher, with a very lovely tea.

Students owe much to this worthwhile organization that demonstrates their interest and effort in the individual development of every pupil. They have completed many worthwhile projects which have contributed much to our school. Through these activities the PTA became an important part of our school and home lives.

Mrs. John King and Mrs. Myrtle Chatfield decorate for a special dance for the subfreshmen.

Mr. Henry Dumphey explains his treasurer's report to Mrs. Charles Clayton and Mrs. V. S. Malnoski, secretaries. The PTA seems to be financially well off.

ABLE LEADERS TEACH AT MHS

Mrs. Annette Chalker Askew, an MHS. alumni, has inspired students here for six years. In addition to being Chairman of the English Department and advisor of the Pitchfork, Mrs. Askew enjoys pursuing several interesting hobbies and community activities. She has an A.B. degree from G.S.C.W. and has also attended Duke University.

Harrison Anderson, teacher of American history, is boys' basketball and baseball coach. A graduate of the University of Georgia, Coach Anderson has been teaching at Marietta for seventeen years. Mrs. E. J. Query, librarian and advisor of the Library Aides Club, also gives courses in library study for several classes. Dallas Stewart, Science Club advisor, is a graduate of Berry College. Mr. Stewart prepares a film for his physics classes.

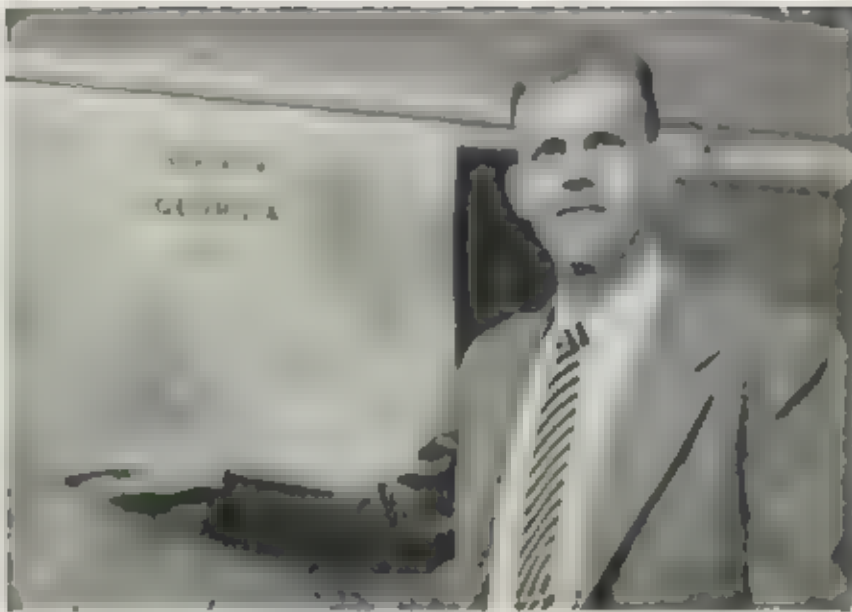

"We'll never finish all this English homework, and we have a physics and history test tomorrow!" Busy seniors gave such painful groans at the end of almost every school day at MHS. This year more work was expected of us seniors than ever before. As the end of the year drew near, however, we began thanking our teachers because they were constantly setting new challenges before us and helping our development, not only in the classroom, but in our everyday living as well. And as we came to value their guidance and friendship, we found that these teachers are actually very interesting people to know. After seeing Mr. Anderson's amusing grin, we weren't too amazed to learn that he had been chosen Mr. MHS of 1930! Nor were we surprised to learn that Mr. Strother, an excellent artist in his own right, has created an array of striking pictures. One modern abstract canvass of his won first place in the 1958 Cobb County Art Festival.

Many of our teachers are active participants in worthy community activities. Mr. Glenn is an energetic member of the First Methodist Church's official board and of the Marietta Lions Club. In his spare time he likes to study about the Civil War and write short stories. Several faculty members teach night school and summer school, others spend their well-deserved vacations gaining more knowledge, learning new teaching methods and becoming better equipped to effectively teach each new class of students. Last summer Mr. Stewart completed several summers' study at Emory and received his masters in education with a major in science.

Most of the teachers have special hobbies and activities which they particularly enjoy. Mr. McKeown, a Peabody graduate, enjoys boating and water sking in his free moments. Mrs. E. A. Wolfe, a graduate of the University of Georgia, relaxes by playing bridge and dancing. Mrs. Askew, who last summer made a European tour, has recently acquired an interest in hunting.

These leaders influence every student they teach.

W. J. Glenn seems to be one of the best teachers at MHS. He teaches civics, American history and English. He advises the Alpha Hi-Y. Mr. Glenn is a graduate of the University of Georgia with an A.B. in Journalism. He also has a Masters of Education.

French Johnson, popular sponsor of M Club, has been Marietta's athletic director and head football coach now for three years. He has a B.S. degree from Tennessee Tech and a masters from Peabody College. Coach Johnson is also head coach of the golf team.

This is J. W. Strother's first year teaching at Marietta High School. He is a graduate of Louisiana College with a B. A. in art education. All his junior and senior students agree he's tops in the field.

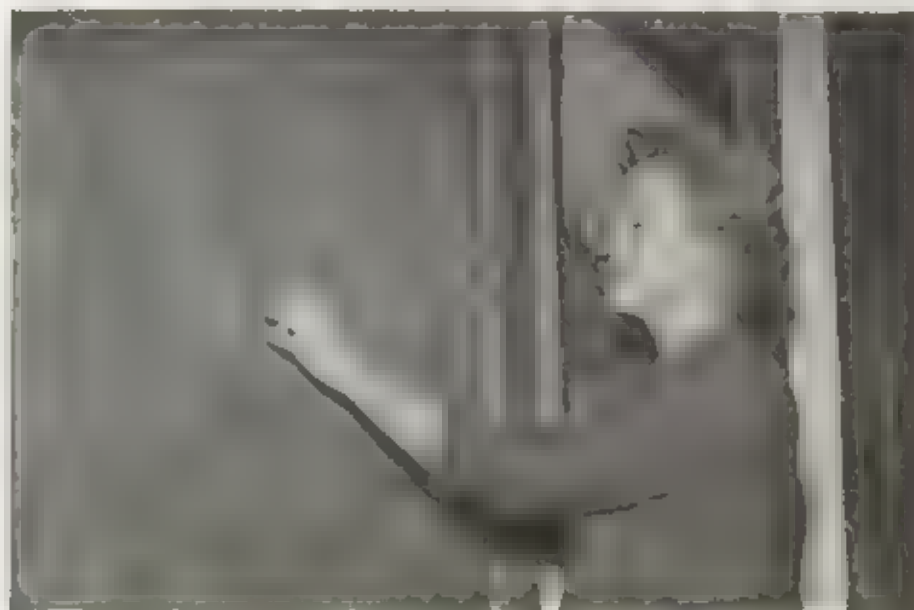

Mrs. E. A. Wolfe teaches sophomore and senior English and sponsors the Senior Tri-Hi-Y. She is another new teacher at MHS.

Miss Ruth Leah Ogden, is the capable director of music education for the Marietta High School and our own choral department. Boyd McKeown, known to everyone as Mr. Mac, has skillfully directed our Band for five years. Outstanding records at this year's music festivals were made by both the Band and the choral groups.

Mr. Jack Finlayson and Mrs. J. M. Douglas. Mrs. Douglas is sponsor of the Junior Tri-Hi-Y.

Mrs. Carolyn Morris, an alumna of the University of South Carolina, prepares for a French Class. She also advises P.S. social club.

Mrs. Beth Stillwell Barron, sponsor of Junior Music Club and Junior Choir. She teaches Spanish and Junior English.

FACULTY AID

"Are there any questions, class?" Mrs. Lee always made sure we juniors knew our geometry; and like the majority of our teachers, she tried to help us with our many problems, whether with penmanship or college applications. Miss Nolen who has an A.B. degree and a Masters of Education, seemed always interested in our activities. She herself is a collector of coins and stamps, an active church member, and a lover of fine music.

Miss Smith, who has a B.S. and a M.Ed. degree, has many similar interests. She also enjoys fishing. A teacher here for 34 years, she is sponsor of FBLA and Stamp and Coin Club. Mrs. John Vickery advises the Future Teachers of America Club. Mrs. Barron, a graduate of Wesleyan College, is very interested in music, reading, and cooking. She sponsors the Junior Music Club. Mrs. Douglass, typing teacher and Junior Tri-Hi-Y advisor, likes to work with the young people in the First Methodist Church's Junior Fellowship. She is also interested in sewing and camping with her family.

Carl Douglas, chemistry teacher, is a student at the University of Berne in Switzerland. Miss Clara Nolen, sponsor of Beta Club and Stamp and Coin Club teaches English.

We are indeed fortunate to have such high caliber teachers. A concrete witness to their outstanding ability and personality is the eminent position of Marietta High among Georgia schools. Credit for the spirit of co-operation they foster in every phase of our school's activities and acclaim for their accomplishments is well deserved. To say that these people are truly good teachers is the highest tribute that can be paid them.

"What can I do for you, honey?" Mrs. Edna Poore Lee teaches geometry, penmanship, advanced algebra and trig. She has A.B., B.S., M.A. degrees.

"Watch that ball, girls." Mrs. Miriam Hipsher teaches Girls Physical Education and coaches the Girls Basketball Team and Cheerleaders. She herself enjoys many sports.

Mrs. Charles R. Sergent, typing, shorthand and business arithmetic instructor, discusses teaching aids with Mary Ellen Smith, Business Education Department Chairman.

SOPHIS LEARN SPIRIT OF MHS

This year we sophomores really began to feel like a part of MHS. Our teachers were foremost in developing this attitude, because realizing the needs of each student, they helped us develop our own abilities and individuality. We truly learned more from our teachers than English, algebra, biology, Latin, and world history.

Many of our teachers, we found, were pretty interesting people with special interests and abilities of their own. Mr. Rony's knowledge of other countries and languages amazed us. We enjoyed his historical accounts and personal anecdotes that enlivened our Latin period. Mrs. Howell, Randolph Macon graduate (and former MHS cheerleader), knew how to make biology seem easy for us. We could always tell which day she went to Emory to study for her Master of Art in teaching science, especially if she didn't have her homework!

Our teachers enjoyed relaxing in interesting and different ways. Miss Outlaw particularly liked to curl up with a book of non-fiction, while Mr. Stabler enjoyed golfing and hiking. Mrs. White, Agnes Scott alumna, was typical of many of our teachers. She devoted much of her time and energy to the school and students as well as to her home, family, church, and community activities. Marietta High School is indeed fortunate in having teachers who are interested in more than just "reading, 'writing, and 'rithmetic."

"Algebra is fun," says Mrs. White, tenth grade algebra teacher. She is sponsor of the Y Council, governing body of the Y Clubs.

FACULTY AIDS

"Doctor, lawyer, Indian chief!" We freshmen really considered every possible occupation as we tried to choose our future professions. We also had to decide which course we would study during our remaining years at Marietta High School. Our studies became stimulating adventures as we realized how important each particular subject might be in our chosen career.

Algebra, a new field in math for us, was not always very easy to understand. Thank goodness Miss Sanford continued to work with us until she was certain we knew our lesson! In our freshman English classes, Miss Culley and Mr. Jones guided us toward a basic knowledge of important grammar and literature, while our science teachers introduced exciting, new facts.

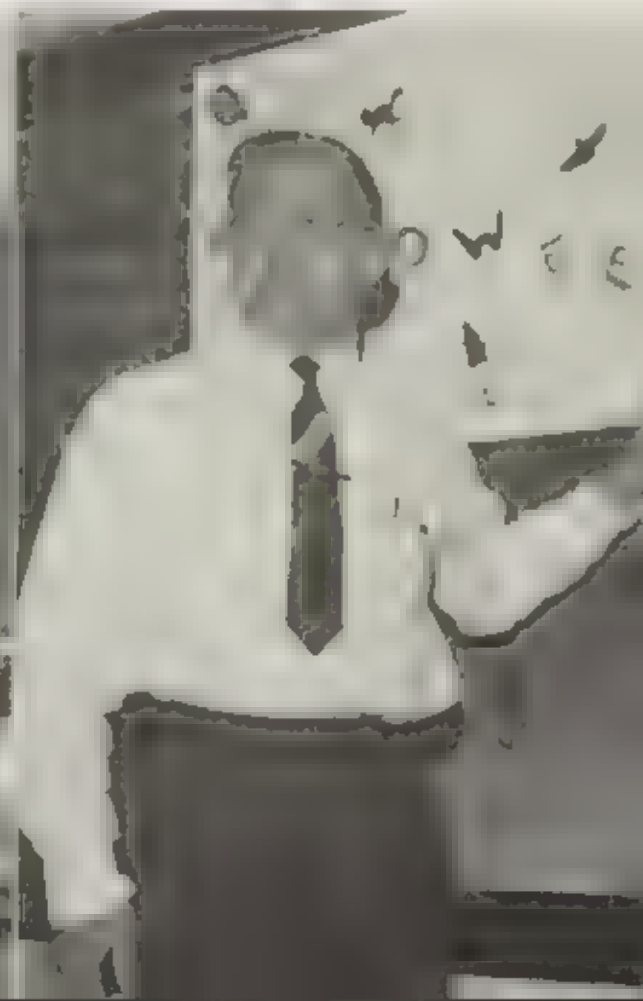

"Circle around and go for that touchdown," instructs Bill Lundv, varsity football and track coach. For three years Coach Lundv, M Club advisor, has taught boys physical education at MHS. He has a B.S. and an M.A. degree in physical education.

"You all get to work now," says Olympian advisor, Gerry Culley, as she sends staff members hurrying. Miss Culley, ninth grade English teacher, advises the B team cheerleaders and the Y-teens.

Mrs. D. E. Higgins, a graduate of Mississippi Southern, has taught home economics at MHS for ten years. She sponsors the Zenith FHA Club and also teaches sewing to adults in the community. W. A. S. J. teaches general science and advises the Sophomore Hi-Y. J. A. Jones, Student Council sponsor, teaches ninth grade English.

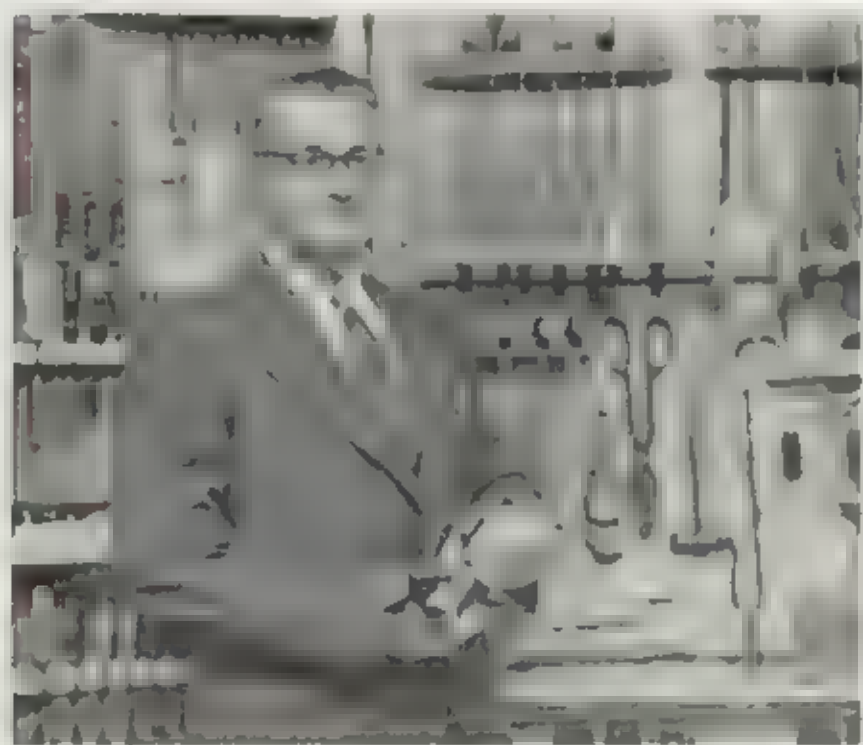

FROSH STUDY

All the girls found home economics even more interesting than it was last year. Mrs. Higgins and Miss Dilbeck supervised each student as she learned the art of being a good homemaker. The boys especially enjoyed shop and physical education. Coach Lundy and Mr. Cavileer were always able to give boys advice as they guided them along the way to young manhood and maturity.

In Miss Gable's civics class we learned more about United States government. We put our new knowledge to use in our class and club meetings and elections.

Our teachers this year played an important part in our future. We looked to them for guidance as we developed many of our attitudes toward life.

Miss Rachel Griffith and Miss Mary Lance discuss their general science lesson plans. Miss Griffith is a graduate of the Appalachian State Teachers College. Miss Lance, an MHS alumni, has a B.S. from GSCW and an M.ED. from the University of North Carolina.

John Cavileer, B. S., M.S., and Ed.D. teaches industrial arts at MHS.

Martha Lou Gable, civics teacher, advisor of Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y. Miss Charlotte Dilbeck teaches home economics and sponsors the Future Homemakers Club. Miss Bessie Sanford, algebra I teacher and Freshman Tri-Hi-Y advisor, has been teaching at MHS for fifteen consecutive years.

E. M. Funderhuk teaches economic geography and drivers education. He spends much of his time at Y working with young people.

Marion Blume teaches social geography, civics and vocational guidance and sports is the Freshman HI-Y.

Mrs. Christine Hutcheson, president of the MHS Faculty Club and Celia Cumbee discuss eighth grade English projects.

MHS GREETS

"Do you know where Mrs. Dobbins' room is? Where do we go now? Oh, I'm lost!" As we eighth graders began our first year at Marietta High School, we were not sure whether we were coming or going. Thank goodness for each of those teachers who greeted us with friendly smiles that first day of high school! Since everything was so different for us, we certainly appreciated our teachers' encouragement. This year was one of hard work and competition as well as one of friendships and good times.

Several of our teachers were as new at MHS as we were. Mrs. Sullivan, a Texas Tech graduate quickly became a part of the busy school life. She taught us homemaking and general science and also sponsored the FHA Happy Homemaker Chapter. Miss Celia

Miss Marilyn Middleton, Junior FHA advisor teaches home economics. James Ruggles, B team basketball coach and Audio-Visual chairman, is physical education instructor.

J. L. Jones, mechanical drawing teacher, is assistant football coach and B team basketball coach

NEW COMERS

Cumbee, a new English teacher found sewing and reading fun like many of the faculty. Mrs. Dobbins has taught here for fifteen years. She seemed to be as interested in us as we knew she was in her two grandsons. Mr. Blume, an expert on foreign languages and Russian history, was another teacher of ours. Mrs. Christine Hutcheson became quite a celebrity in our eyes when she had her book, Off the High Horse, published. Mrs. Hutcheson, who studied literature and journalism at Oglethorpe and Emory Universities, is a member of the MEA, the PTA, the NEA, and the Georgia Council of English teachers

Our teachers made uncovering the secrets of our studies and doing various projects both fun and beneficial for us

Mrs. Jack Webb teaches economic geography. She is also on the eighth grade chapel committee

FACULTY GOES BEYOND DUTY

The varied interests, the educational know-how, the genuine personality, the unquestionable character — these traits of the Marietta High School teacher make him a true influence on the life of every student he instructs.

Many of our teachers have special extracurricular activities which occupy a great part of their time; however, in giving freely of their time and interests, those who sponsor the service, honor, and social organizations help each student become mentally alert, emotionally stable, socially adjusted, and physically fit.

These are not antiquated teachers, for their interests and abilities cover a wide field. Every teacher at MHS has at least one college degree. Many have several degrees apiece including a number of Masters.

Individual service records are outstanding. One teacher has been here for thirty-four years.

Many teachers are in their first year at Marietta High. These newcomers have quickly become a part of our school. We value these new friendships.

The friendliness, the interest, and co-operation of all the faculty enables a broad curriculum to be given to a great many students in a smooth and efficient manner.

From these teachers we receive more than new facts. We learn from them how to stand on our own feet, how to be a true and lasting friend, and how to be constantly growing and developing new attitudes and ideas. They teach us to be always striving to maintain high achievements and to live up to our school's high standing. These are not "Do as I say, not as I do" teachers.

We commend the faculty of MHS for their outstanding qualities of leadership and for their abilities as molders of young citizens.

Mr. M. Funderburk, who often drives the bus on school sponsored trips, always enjoys working with young people. Mrs. J. R. White, for whom the church is an integral part of life, never fails to find time for worship with her husband and son.

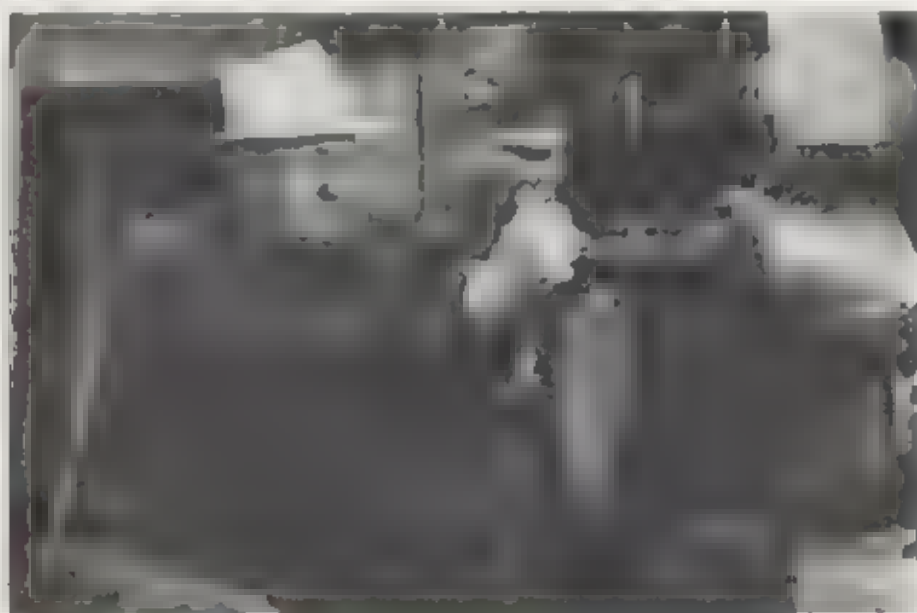

Mrs. J. E. Williams, district H. D. Co-ordinator for the city schools, is the friend of many students. Constantly helping to keep MIHS running smoothly. Miss Beasley greets all with a cheerful smile. Miss Russell, the visiting teacher, is always on the go.

BEHIND THE SCENES AT MIHS

Mr. S. S. Beasley, head maintenance man for Marietta city schools.

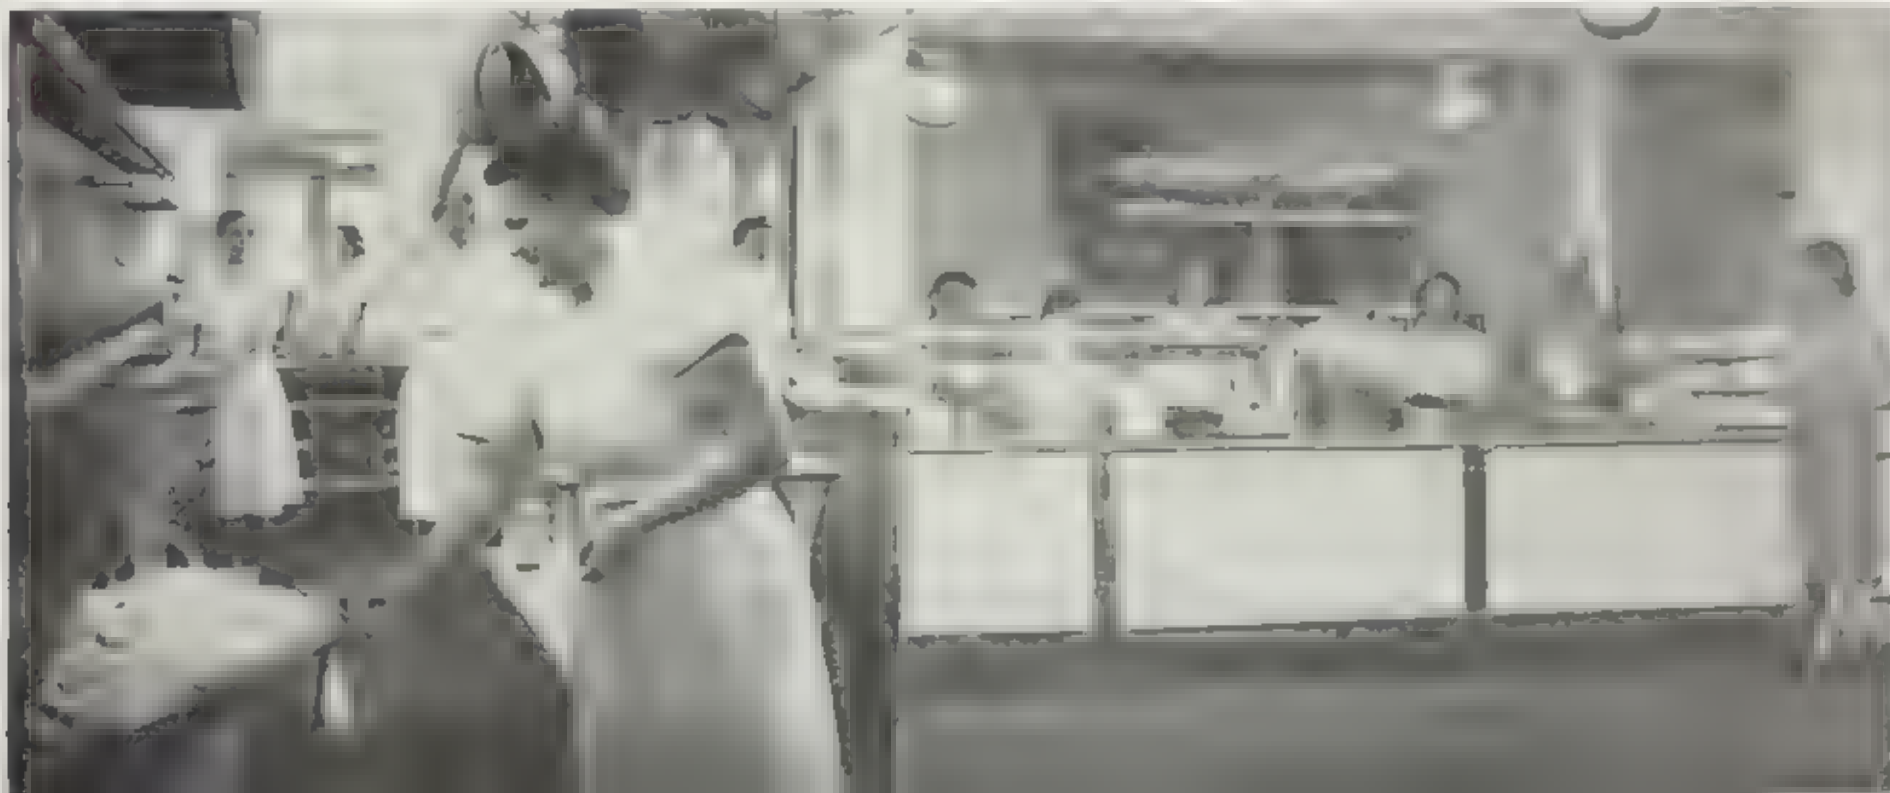

What makes an outstanding high school—the teachers, the subjects taught, the amount of homework given, the fine buildings and up to date equipment, the number of honors received, or the special events and exciting times? Each student will remember Marietta as a high caliber school for his own special reasons. Most however, seldom think about one facet of school life that helps to make our school first class.

Behind the scenes at Marietta High School we find many people who are indispensable to the smooth running of this large institution. In addition to the administration and faculty, are office workers, lunch room workers, janitors, and other staff members.

Because most of these people receive little recognition or credit, the Olympian staff wishes to thank them for their faithful service. The school appreciates these "Jacks of all trades" who accept their responsibilities and quietly carry out their duties.

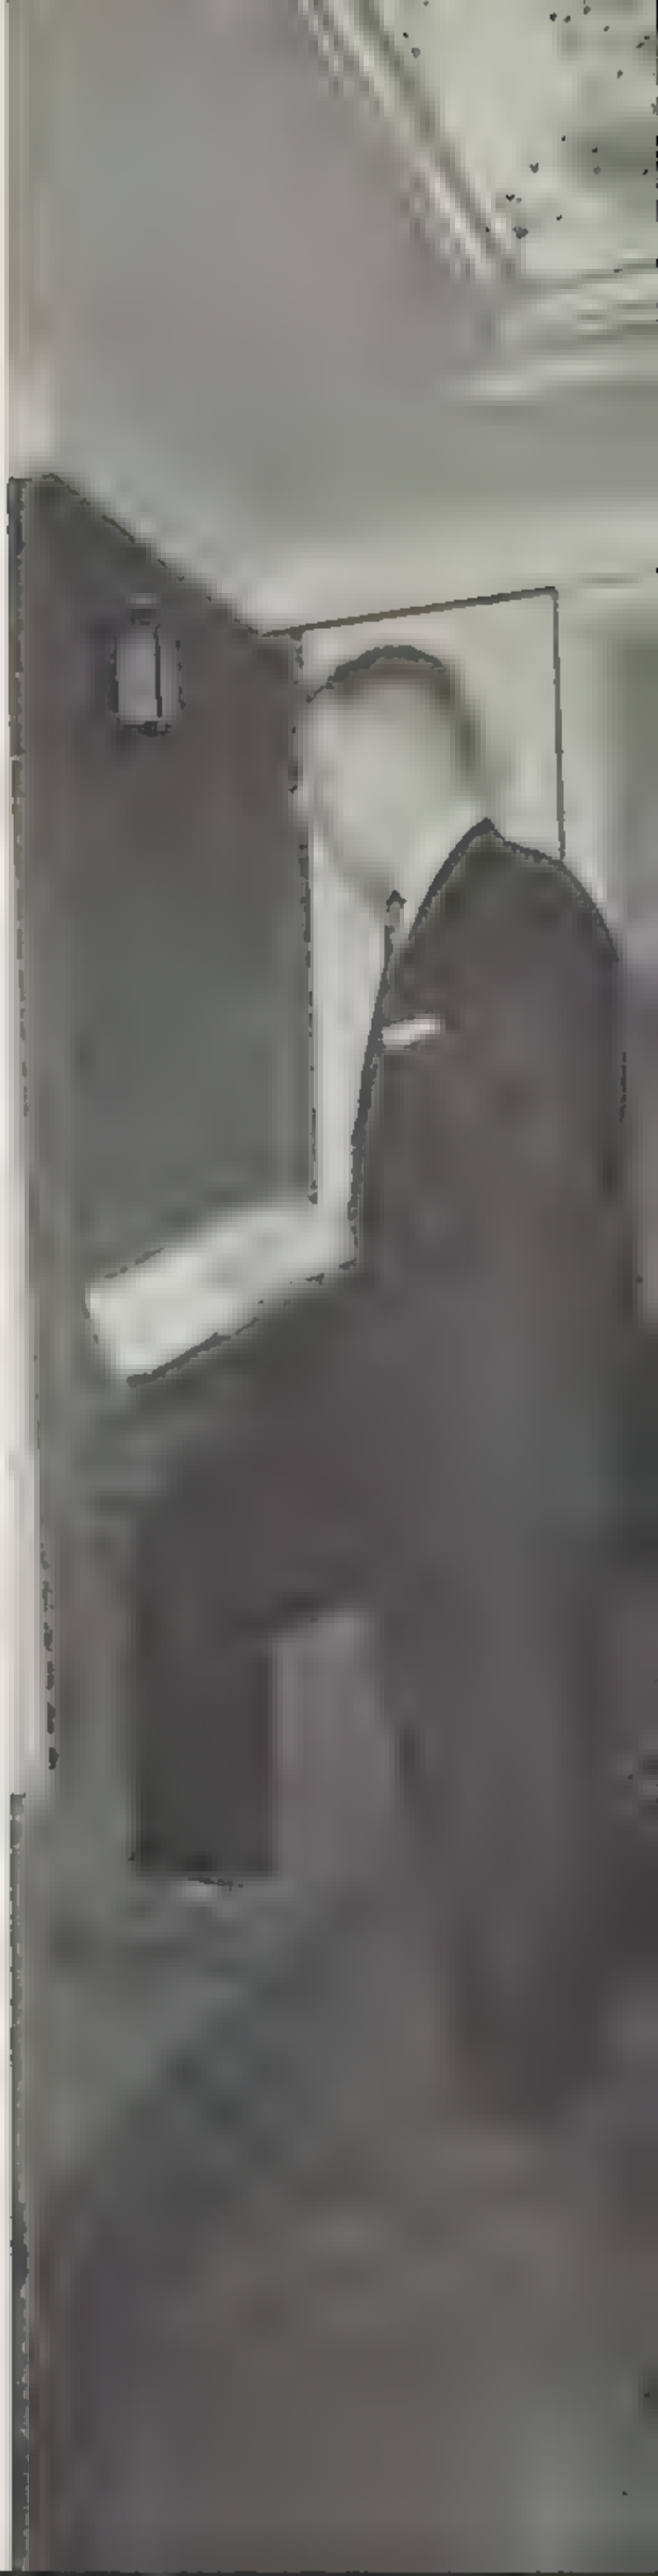

The Antley Cafeteria staff consists of Mrs. Kate Moore, Mr. J. H. Wade, Mr. Alton Mills, Mrs. Dorothy Bell, and Lillie Houston. Mr. Wade removes from the oven a tray of fresh hot rolls served daily to hungry students. Mrs. Kay Warren, Mrs. Ruby Robinson, a student helper, Mrs. Winnie Downey, Mrs. Corda Underhill, Mr. F. H. H. Mrs. Addie Lamaine, and Mrs. Mildred Fulton serve about five hundred rolls each day in the Wann Street Cafeteria. Mrs. Helen Hogan, not pictured, is the lunchroom supervisor of Marietta public schools.

Iomecoming, Valentine Ball, chapel programs — one event will remain in the mind of each of us as we look back over this year. Elections for Mr. and Miss MHS and the superlatives held our interest the year round. We all wanted our choice to come out on top. These special memories will be added to the ones we already cherish.

MIHS GREET'S

At last here they come! The 1959 Homecoming court was being presented to the excited and shivering Marietta student body. Carrying out the school colors the girls wore blue and white gowns and carried huge white chrysanthemums given to them by their classes. After the band and twirling corps performed a very special show, the Queen and her court slowly marched through the two rows of snappy-looking bandmen. Superintendent Antley crowned the Queen, Rosemary Stapp, who looked stately and resplendent in her blue velvet cape and jeweled crown. Then, while cameras snapped and flashed, Rosemary and her escort, Student Council President Ben Hill, led the Homecoming Court parade off the field. Sitting on the sidelines all of the court joined the crowd in cheering our football team to a magnificent victory over Decatur. The student body later attended the Homecoming dance in the Brumby Gym. Afterward, they all agreed the dance was a successful climax to the previous week's frenzied activities.

What a week it was! Our Student Council, being in charge of the entire procedure, was determined that Marietta High School's fourth annual homecoming was definitely to be the best of all. Every club participated and helped keep the myriad of activities going smoothly.

The school chose the queen from the senior class's three nominations. Two members for the Queen's court were chosen by each class and introduced to the student body in Wednesday's special chapel program. Howard Ector, Business Manager of the Georgia Tech Athletic Association, was guest speaker. On Thursday was the colorful Homecoming parade, and on Friday the Key Club and Beta Club gave a faculty and alumni tea. Everyone agreed that Homecoming was a very special event in this year to be remembered.

OLYMPIAN BALL WINS PRAISE

Friday the thirteenth! Although many of the Olympian staff members were a little dubious of the infamous date of the Valentine Ball, not even a slight catastrophe marred the gala occasion. The Ball consumed two busy weeks of campaigning for the boys and girls chosen by the classes as candidates for King and Queen of the dance. We staff members had begun preparation for the great night early in the year. Everyone worked like Trojans to make this the most memorable Valentine Ball ever.

The ball began with music by the talented "Men of Notes," Ben Hill, Student Council President and Olympian sports editor, ably presented as the Master of ceremonies, while Olympian Editor, Elyse Dasher, presented as Mistress of Ceremonies. When the curtains slowly opened revealing the lovely decorations, the student approval was obvious. Each candidate accompanied throughout the delightful dance. Then at midnight the winning couple, crowned by Mrs. Swartz, led the grand march, ending this event to be remembered.

Senior representatives Jimmy Lamm and Memmon Funderburk lost themselves in the romantic atmosphere. Holding the royal crowns for the Queen and King of the Valentine Ball are the children of E. M. Funderburk, Susan and Memmon.

Shouts of approval fill the auditorium during chapel as the MHS band presents a variety of enjoyable programs. Special numbers included the snappy "March Forth," "Baggers' Holiday," a cornet solo, and the lovely "Meditation" from Thais. The J.C. Majorettes and Twirling Corp performed during "Nightbeat," a novelty number. Several students were given a chance to fulfill their ambitions to lead a band. The chaotic results were somewhat surprising.

COMMITTEE BETTERS CHAPEL

"The Indians are coming!" The cheerleader's shout for the school to get into the MHS gymnasium, H. B. M. Kelly, H. M. With the slogan, "Hurry, hurry, hurry," the Olympian staff urged every student to buy a yearbook.

"Come on, this morning we have chapel." The chapel programs this year were outstanding for one reason — they were consistently good! A special chapel committee, just formed this year, was greatly responsible for this welcome change. The primary objective of the program committee was to give to the Marietta High School student body the type of chapel programs they would enjoy attending.

Janet Teem, Felton Havgood, and Miss Gerry Culley, the chapel committee, gave every school organization an opportunity to present a program, provided their program met the high standards set up by the committee and was approved.

Cheerleader tryouts, at the beginning of the school year, was a very interesting event. Throughout the football season, pep rallies enlivened the spirit of the student body. The girls' and boys' basketball teams previewed the exciting games to come with some lively scrimmage games.

The annual series of Teen Talks presented by the Y Clubs were more inspirational and thought provoking than they have ever been.

Other programs we especially remembered were the Beta Club induction, the choral music programs, the Science Club's "Collapse of Time," and the installing of new student council officers. During Devil's Doings Week a series of programs with emphasis on culture, sports, school service, and scholarship at MHS ended a year of outstanding programs.

The Key Club presents "A Challenge to Youth." Participating in the program are Dr. Alfred Colquitt, physician, Dr. Harry K. Holland, minister, Felton Hagood, Jake Cogburn, Jackie Bell, and W P Sprayberry, superintendent of county schools

"What does Christmas mean to you?" The Senior Tri-Hi-Y asking this thought-provoking question presented a program including Mary Elizabeth Fletcher Marilyn Ingersoll, Julia Berens, Lucia Smith, Karen Fermanick, and Marolyn Roha

OLYMPIAN ELECTS WHO'S WHO

Outstanding seniors are chosen each year by this annual staff for their talents and their accomplishments. A few points considered in electing Who's Who are outstanding work in a definite field of service, loyalty to the school, dependability, and ability to work with others

This year we have honored fifteen students in the field of scholarship, church work, music, school spirit, athletics, journalism, club work and leadership

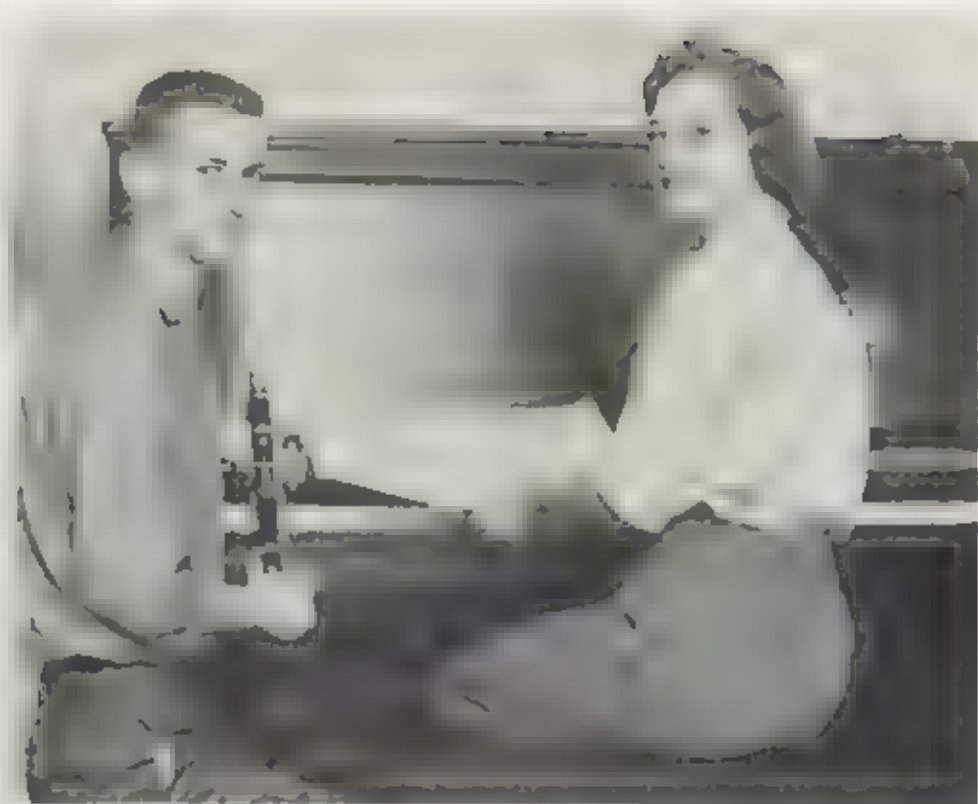

School involves much more than being in class

seven hours a day. The successful student easily balances a heavy schedule with outside activities

The Olympian staff salutes these students, for they have represented MHS well, and have earned recognition, along with Mr. and Miss MHS, the superlatives, and the honor graduates, as the most outstanding members of our senior class. MHS is proud of each of these students for they have worked hard to make our school one of the best in the state and nation. Their untiring work will never be forgotten

Leading in the field of athletics is Gene Dwyerport, in football and basketball. In the field of journalism is Jack Coghlan, school editor. In the field of church work

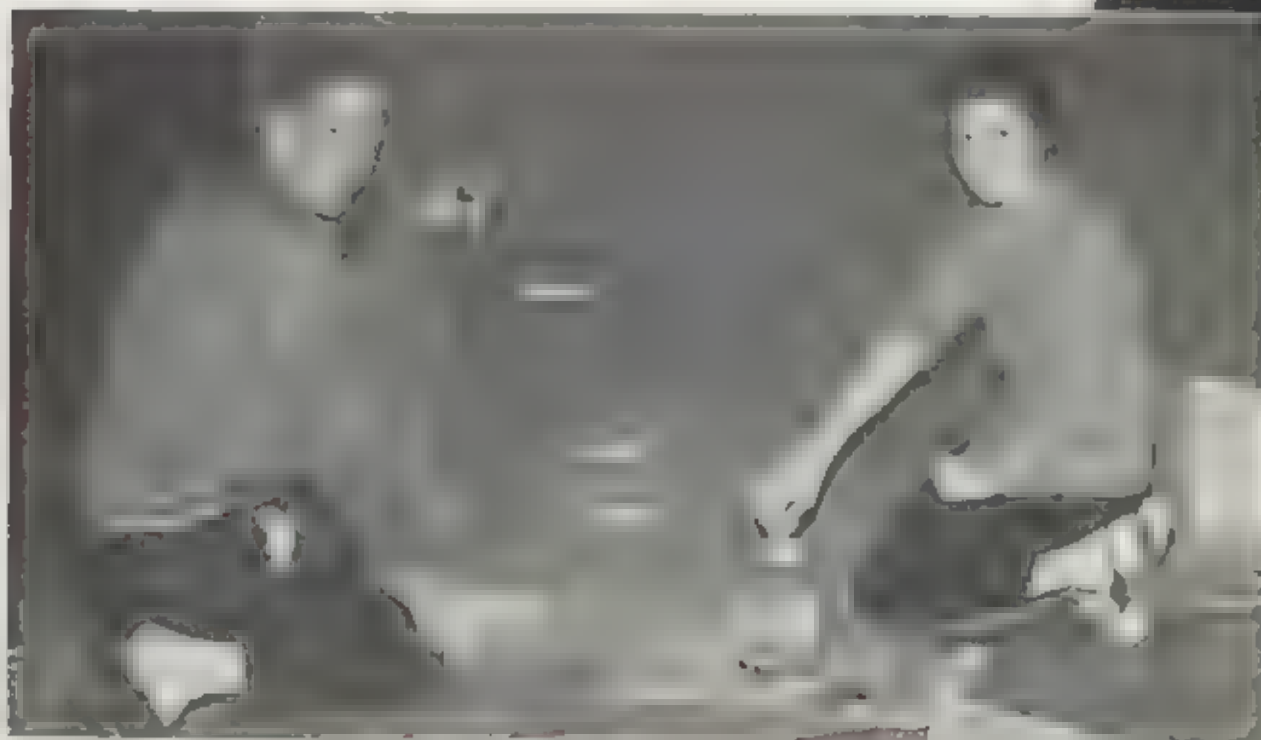

In the field of vision, Betty Meyer and Fletcher Howard both excel.

School spirit is most important in the eyes of Jean Stork and Doris Carr.

Kip Fowler and Bruce Disher show their college spirit in their new uniforms.

Liz Lamm is out-taroring in the field of vision for.

School service and Carol Hall are synonymous at MHS.

HONOR GRADS SECURE MERIT

We, the graduating class of 1959, were proud of our many honor graduates. Twenty-four Marietta High students maintained an average of ninety or above during their junior and senior years in high school. This high academic standing was achieved through long hours of study and hard work; yet, these honor students found time for active participation in various extra curricular organizations.

As a reward for their studious efforts, these seniors were presented academic letters by the Marietta High School PTA. The honor graduates planned the Commencement exercises and were the first to receive their diplomas at graduation. We commend these students for they will always be a credit to MHS.

Physical, spiritual, and mental growth come first in the club goals at MHS. In working in either special interest or service clubs, we help build our own characters and personalities as well as those of others. We have found that working with club sponsors and fellow members can be the spark that makes our day worthwhile.

STAFF CAPTURES

"Got to meet the deadline" were the words foremost in our minds night and day. We had to drop everything to do the impossible

Even before school began, we had begun the foundation for our Olympian. We all slipped into high gear in September and never stopped

Our chapel program, a humorous take-off on western television programs, served to stimulate subscription sales among the students

Chaos reigned supreme as we drew layouts, took pictures, wrote copy, planned the cover, and decided on the dedication. As the year progressed, we soon got everything under control and turned to the subject of money

Always busy and rushed are the five Class Editors. Frances Story, Carol Hall, Jeanenne Johnston, Phyllis Boatner, and Andy Waldrop check and recheck the identification of all the students

Miss Culley, the Advisor, makes a final check to be sure all deadlines will be met. Miss Culley was invaluable for her vast store of ideas

LIFE ON CAMPUS

Our salesmanship ability was really challenged when we began selling ads to Marietta businessmen. Whether we had dates or not, we all had to sell football programs every home game. Selling concessions also helped us earn money.

The main money-making project was the annual Valentine Ball. It was a great success even though it was held on Friday the thirteenth. Contrary to superstition, we had extremely good luck.

Somewhere and somehow we managed to find time to sponsor the voting for Mr. and Miss MHS and the six superlatives. Ballots for everyone of the student body were delivered and counted by us.

We hope everyone will enjoy the Olympian of 1959

PITCHFORK AIMS

Because of the pride and interest which we have in the Pitchfork, we members of the staff have tried in every way possible to maintain and exceed the standards of the paper in the past. We have tried to acquaint the students of the high school with those activities which are going on around them day by day. In an attempt to give our readers a variety of material, we have stories ranging from the fads in fashion to the latest news on the subject of sports.

There is more than just brain work concerned in reporting the events to the students. Each month before the paper is published stories must be selected, proofs must be checked, and heads must be written. As reward for all this work however, the critics of NSPA and CSPA rated the paper as first place. This is a rating about which the staff and the student body are very proud.

Typing up their stories are the reporters Patsy Burnet, Betty Garrett, Elinor Ann Clayton, Mary Margaret Manning, Willie Johnson, and Mike Mote. They are always on the job to report the events of the year.

Assistant Ad Manager, Sally Ganitt, files information while Business Manager and Photographer, John Fricks, types. Elizabeth Hawthorne, Ad Manager, telephones an ad buyer

FOR HIGH RATING

We are also proud of the influence of our paper. We have had many projects in the past, such as the creative writing project of Devil's Tales, and the sponsoring of classes on the fundamentals of parliamentary procedure. Our pen initiated the project of constructing a county-wide library, a benefit long needed by everyone for research and pleasure.

Most of our articles concern school activities. We have covered the activities of clubs, music groups, athletic teams, and academic classes in addition to our scoops on awards and honors given by the school and other establishments.

We sincerely hope that the Pitchfork along with the Olympian has endeared this school year to the memory of all MHS students. It is for this reason that we have tried to present to fellow students a paper of which they may be proud.

Bringing in the new editions of Saga Stories and Henry's Gazette for a month's work student awaits the arrival of the Pitchfork with anticipation to see who is Boy or Girl of the Month or to read of the many other interesting items.

COUNCIL PLANS HOMECOMING WEEK

Checking the scholastic progress of the Junior and Senior classes, John Carter prepares to make a report to fellow members of the Student Council. Members are eager to participate in all phases of school life.

This has been one of the most active and most successful years for the Student Council. We feel that we have done much to improve student-faculty relationships, school spirit, and student participation because we have had such willing and able leaders.

By working and planning with the different clubs of the high school, we tried to plan more interesting chapel programs, appealing, and personal to the students as well as valuable in content. Although there is still room for greater improvement, we feel that on the whole we have succeeded in raising program standards higher than ever before.

We again devoted all our effort to make the Homecoming Week, which we sponsor, a great success. Much work went into the plans for the chapel program and the activities of the week. But as we saw our beautiful queen, Rosemary Shipp, being crowned, and as we heard the comments of approval from our fellow students, we felt that the work had not gone unnoticed.

This was the second year that our Ten Point System was successfully carried out in the school. Because the councils in the past have done so much work to bring this about, we are privileged to see the excellent result. By this system the honor and responsibility of positions of leadership are distributed throughout the students here at school.

TAC PLANS STUDENT RECREATION

Admiring the plans for the new Teen Age Canteen are Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Langworthy. They have been the devoted advisors of the TAC for many years and have aided teenagers in every way possible.

We have had a lot of fun this year in planning for our new Teen Age Canteen which will be ready for use early next year. The new building will be available to all students.

During the summer, many of our council members and officers attended a workshop in Atlanta. This gave us many new ideas for projects for the canteen.

This year we sponsored two big dances, the annual Christmas formal and our birthday dance. We sponsored a dance from which all proceeds went to the March of Dimes.

We were very fortunate in securing a new jukebox, which was a welcomed addition to our canteen.

We have had a wonderful year because of efficient, willing officers and sponsors. These workers were responsible for many valuable ideas.

Y-COUNCIL SPONSORS TEEN TALKS

We, the Y-Council of Marietta High, have done our best to have another successful year in co-ordinating all efforts of our ten Y Clubs. Our enrollment consists of all Y Club presidents and one representative from each club. We feel that our work has improved relations among all the clubs.

Our meetings were held once a month to make plans for projects which were common for all the Y Clubs. During this year we were successful in securing national recognition for two of our Y sponsors and recognition of one of our Y Clubs in the Parent's Magazine. Attending conferences and civic programs are only a few of our many activities.

We feel that our record has been outstanding. We hope that next year's council will do equally well in following the standards we have tried to maintain.

Finora Ann Clayton, John Cernal, and Advisor Mrs. White discuss and plan for one of their largest projects, World Service. The interest of the whole council in this project made it successful.

Remar Sutton, James Merritt, Bradley Martin, Elizabeth Hawthorn, Linda Roach, and Jeanie Hicks follow the plans which will lead to better organization for all the Y Clubs.

Officers Betty Garrett, Nancy Daubenberg, and Julia Berens look over the budget.

TRI-HI-Y WORKS TO IMPROVE CLUB

Because this is our last year at Marietta, our club has tried harder than ever to make our club the best. We have participated in many projects here at school and in our community during the year.

Some of our projects have been making favors for hospital trays, collecting Blue Horse and Write-Right coupons for the Junior Class, collecting magazines for Milledgeville Hospital, collecting clothing for the Clothes Rack, preparing food baskets for needy families at Thanksgiving, and aiding the Presbyterian Church in one of its projects by collecting old silk stockings. We also made drawings for the children at Creswell School to color.

We had a wonderful time when we presented a Christmas chapel program before the holidays began. In addition to this program we upheld the old tradition of caroling when, as a group, we visited different homes on Christmas Eve. This year for the Senior club has been the most successful and unforgettable we have ever had.

Marilyn Ingersoll and Mary Elizabeth Fletcher, program chairmen, are getting down to the all important business of planning projects for the busy months ahead.

HI-Y SPONSORS YMCA PROJECTS

Again Mrs. Lee's guidance has helped us enjoy this year in Hi-Y. We have had a most satisfactory year.

Our school service projects consisted of ushering at the Parents' Night program and at other programs at school. We feel the raising and lowering of the flag each day made students conscious of their flag.

In accordance with the other Y Clubs we prepared a Thanksgiving basket. We participated and aided in the YMCA projects. These achievements comprised our community projects for this year.

Our activities were numerous. We were fortunate, indeed, to be able to hear many interesting speakers such as two naval officers. Many of us attend an Officers' Training Clinic. Our visit to Lockheed was not only extremely interesting but also very informative. We gained insight into the complex workings of the aviation industry.

With the successful completion of our projects, we gained much satisfaction and increased experience in the field of club work. So ended another good year.

All are active members and work for the progress they derive from completing many worthwhile projects. School service projects, community projects, and many activities constitute the agenda for the well planned months ahead. The club has grown immensely during the past years. Under the capable leadership of the sponsor, Mrs. Lee, and the officers, the club is most successful.

HI-Y CO-OPERATES

We have had a very successful year in accomplishing many worthwhile projects for the benefit of all.

Our biggest project was that of sponsoring a Juvenile Traffic Court, the first in Georgia.

The Leaf-Rake project was a new achievement for our club. The object of this project was to help elderly people by raking leaves and to make any needed repairs for their homes.

Our club members visited the children at Batty Hospital. We entertained them with a party.

We sponsored several radio programs this past year. We presented a series of programs about teenagers and problems, and also one program on the "Value of a YMCA to a Community."

We were honored by receiving the WSB 750 Award.

Officers, Hugh Durden, Alvin Pannell, Bobby Kennedy, Leslie Trotter at January Club Meeting at Central Theatre Club.

Members Becky Brannon, Joey Cotter, and M. Baker participated in the annual collection Blue Horses by cutting them. This was a most successful project.

TRI-III-Y IMPROVES

This year our club has grown to the grand total of sixty-five and each one of us takes part in projects.

Children at Gracewood were made a great deal happier through our efforts. Children's records, a record player, clothing, and dolls were included in our visit. This was our main project of the year.

Among other projects we collected at least 100
 1000000s for Kennestone Hospital. The Cancer Club is presented with sheets and other white material.
 We also participated in our perennial undertaking of accumulating Blue Horse and Write-Rite trade marks

After spending the year in the service of Marietta High, these members feel that they have reached their goals. They have carried out a great many worthwhile projects for the school and the community.

HI-Y SHINES

We in the freshman Hi-Y have spent another year in the service of our school. We are trying to fill the shoes of the Hi-Y clubs that have gone before us. We have had good workers and we have reached our goals.

During this year we have carried out a great many worthwhile projects. We have been active in promoting good sportsmanship among the students as well as participating in the good scholarship campaign.

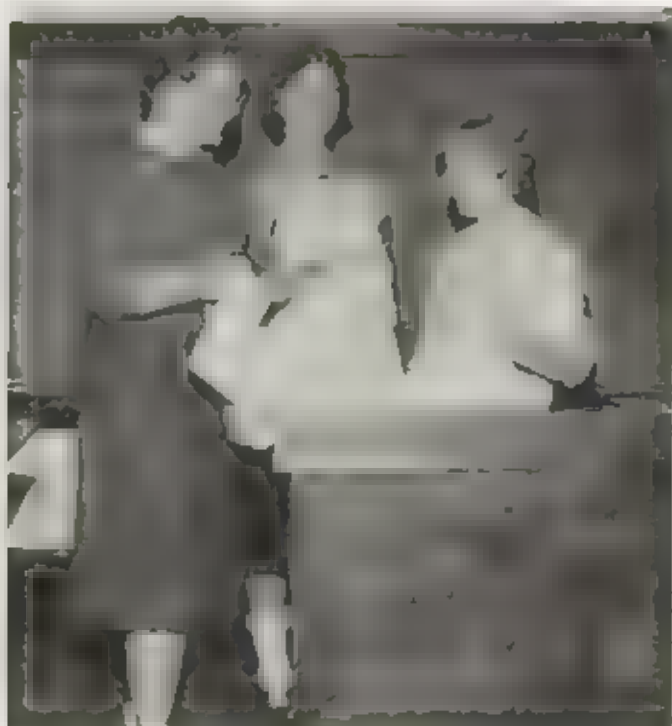

We owe much of our success to Mr. Marion Blume. He has given much of his free time to help us plan our projects, programs and other activities.

During the meeting of the Hi-Y, Mr. Blume, the advisor, speaks informally with the members concerning forthcoming projects. An atmosphere of co-operation prevails.

Pres. Ronald Howren, Vice pres. Stephen Scarborough, treas. Ellis Randle, and Sec. Harris Brown prepare to attend a meeting to discuss future plans.

Terri Trezevant, Sandra Little, and Patricia Carpenter take much pride in preparing pads for the Cancer Clinic. This was one of the many projects which the club participated in

TRI-HI-Y PREPARES DEVOTIONALS

Mrs. Dobbins, advisor has been the inspiration of the Eighth Grade Tri-Hi-Y for several years

Entertainment for our fellow students ran at a high pitch during our assembly programs. One was installation of the officers. The other consisted of a Thanksgiving play. This play was well received by the student body. Their interest and attention, we are positive, is an indication that our play was well worth the time spent. Another facet which we played a part in is in alternating with the eighth grade Hi-Y in preparing devotionals for assembly

School service is one of our main building blocks in our club. Therefore, when we were asked to participate in the Teen Talks, we gladly accepted. We immediately saw the educational and character building values of this program

We will remember our eighth grade Tri-Hi-Y

Miss Wade, club advisor, talks to the members about one of their many service projects. Her loyal support and sound advice during the year helped in countless ways in furthering the interests of the club.

Jack Smallwood, Tommy Turner and Dick Swanson are busily collecting clothes as part of their Hi-Y service projects. They consider this type work a builder of high character.

HI-Y COLLECTS CLOTHES FOR NEEDY

Our first year in a Hi-Y was an interesting experience. Under the building influence of Miss Wade we saw the need of an organized and efficient club. We immediately began to make our plans for projects and recreation. This was the beginning of our first year in high school clubs.

One of our most successful projects was in the collection of boys' jeans, shirts, coats, and shoes. We in turn gave these to the visiting teacher and school nurse for the needy children. Gifts were supplied to the World Service Fund. The Cancer Clinic was supplied sheets by us.

A school service was in the form of planning the eighth grade chapel.

Yes, we enjoyed our first year in school clubs.

DEC STAMPS BOOKS FOR TEACHERS

"Wow! We've really had a busy year in '59. This is a popular sentence with all us DEC members. Just to let you know how busy we have been, we'll tell you about the many projects we did during this year.

To help the eighth graders the first day of school, we ushered them to all of their classes.

During pre-planning week we aided the teachers by stamping their books and helping to get the classroom ready for their students.

Another helpful project which we did was decorating the band sections for each football game.

For a new project this year we cleaned the trophies in the trophy case in the old building. Our project for the community this year was giving clothes to a needy family during Christmas.

Our biggest event of this year was the annual DEC dance. Everyone seemed to enjoy it, especially our DEC members. Getting together for decorations and the spend-the-night party afterwards really "topped" the whole evening off just right for all.

Again this year we had as our advisor, Miss Outlaw. We really enjoy her, she is a lot of fun.

LUCKY "13" SPONSORS GIRL BREAK

"Got room for one more?" This was a familiar sound when it was time to go to Lucky 13 meeting. It always seemed as though there was someone who didn't have a ride to the meeting. We always managed to get everyone there. Once we got the business finished, we had time for frolic and fun.

This year we were very successful in a new project serving the Board of Education at their meetings. We also had our own annual projects which were polishing trophies and decorating the goal posts for each home football game.

Of course, we sponsored the traditional Girl Break again this year. It seems as though it is our most exciting event. Everyone seems to enjoy it, especially the boys, since the girls have to treat the boys for the entire evening.

We had charge of keeping the senior bulletin board decorated all year. We kept it covered with current news of students and school events. In September we sponsored the annual Pep Parade and in November we decorated for the Homecoming dance. We had a wonderful time working to be of service to the school.

PS ADDS SPIRIT

Every other Wednesday we made a mad dash to one of our member's home for our meeting. Carole Baldwin, our president, brought the meeting to order. We then began discussing our projects. Here are the results.

First, the Marietta motorcades to all out-of-town football games were made more colorful by our artistic addition of signs and streamers. We then painted the numbers on the reserved section of the bleachers at the football field. The Homecoming Dance, which we and Lucky 13 sponsored, was a source of great enjoyment for the student body.

The water fountains took on an added sparkle as we added our talents at scrubbing them.

Through our efforts we hope the new year took on a much more pleasant outlook for a needy family.

To add money to our treasury we collected old newspapers for a paper sale among our members.

As this year came to a close, we had an invitation dance, which we hope to be an annual event.

DI 90'S WORKS HARD

"Are you going to Di-Nineties today?" How about a ride?" This question was familiar every other week. We just about broke our necks to get to our meetings. Our meetings are a combination of business and plain old fun.

Planning our formal Di-Nineties dance took time and a lot of hard work. We again chose the Country Club for the site. The theme was especially difficult to choose. We finally picked "The Green Door." Entertainment was a live band. Refreshments were provided. Our reward for our hard work was the dance's being one of the most successful of the year.

We presented the B-team cheerleaders with pom-poms to add color to their spirited cheering.

One of our biggest projects was in sponsoring the Homecoming Parade with DEC. We nearly turned gray-headed trying to position the various cars of all the many clubs.

We have had a wonderful year in our social club.

KEY CLUB SERVES

This year we again greeted the new members into our club by honoring them with a banquet. A successful and pleasure-filled time was had by all.

All our time was not, of course, spent in socializing. We supplied refreshments for the sportscasters during the halves of football games. The gym was enhanced by our repainting the goals on the basketball court. We also contributed to alleviating the confusion during the beginning of school by distributing maps to the eighth graders. Kids' Day, sponsored by the Kiwanians, also provided a project for us members. We helped Campbell High School reorganize their Key Club and attended the State Convention held in Savannah. This year we also had the best achievement report in the State.

We all feel that attending church in a body as often as possible aids in building our character, which is one of our main goals. We feel that this has been a successful year for us.

Officers Aymar Manning, Jake Cogburn, Sponsor Mr. Cox, Ben Hill, and Bohhy Cole gather around the table to plan and discuss the club's future.

M CLUB ADDS PEP

For more than twenty-eight years our club has been active here at Marietta High, and we are again striving to gain more support for our teams and to foster a feeling of team and school spirit. The M Club is open to anyone who has earned his letter in varsity athletics and upholds our motto: "To hold high the standards of the 'M' "

To give everyone a preview of next year's team, and to give the new members of the team game experience, we sponsor a football game between the Blue and White squads of the varsity team. This is a climax to the year's sports and is held after spring practice.

This year we also planned the annual game between the faculty and club members which is always exciting. We aided in planning the Homecoming chapel program, sponsored a drive for greater attendance at the football games, sold concessions at basketball games, and presented a chapel program during which the Blue and White teams had a basketball game.

Beverly Moore, Secretary, is putting the finishing touches to just one of the numerous posters which the M-Club is making for one of their projects.

JR. CIVITAN BUILDS CITIZENSHIP

Jr. Civitan officers, Sylvia Norton, Jimmy Smith, Doris Maynard and Kula Fermanich discuss plans for election of new members

Our club had one of the busiest years in 1959 that we have ever had

During the year we had many varied projects which were very worthwhile

We were hosts to all the schools in Cobb County on Citizenship Day. This is an annual event which is sponsored by the Senior Civitan Club of Marietta. We always look forward to this big event

We also had a special chapel program pertaining to citizenship. Judge Russell Ford was our guest speaker. These two events were of much help to seniors in the writing of their citizenship essays

For our Christmas project each Jr. Civitan member brought a toy for the needy children. It gave us a good feeling to help make Christmas a time of joy for the needy

We also helped needy families during Thanksgiving by taking them canned foods and fresh fruit

Every week we had two representatives from our club to have lunch with the Senior Civitan Club members. This was an enjoyable occasion which we all looked forward to. The luncheons were served at the YWCA.

Each senior member of Jr. Civitan received a club pen from the Senior Civitans. We appreciated them

Our club has been made up of real hard workers this year. We have had a lot of co-operation from all

It has been a year of fun — a year full of pleasant events which will be long remembered

SCIENCE CLUB PLANS FIELD TRIPS

Charles Benbow, David Mize, Jeff Elliott, Mr. Stewart, and Martha Reynolds board the bus to go on one of their many excursions to various interesting sites.

We in the Science Club have had another wonderful and exciting year as we made our usual field trips to visit places of interest. We members feel that from these trips we can obtain a greater understanding of the vast world of science.

Some of our visits this year were made to the Radar Installation at Dobbins Air Force Base, the Aeronautical Research Laboratory at Georgia Tech, the Agnes Scott Observatory, Archeological diggings near Cartersville, and to various programs at E—TV.

We arranged science projects in the Science Hall at the Southeastern Fair, and assisted with the homecoming activities by decorating the stage for the chapel program as projects for our club during the year.

JR. MUSIC CLUB PRESENTS PROGRAMS

We in the Marietta Junior Music Club have enjoyed another year of studying the different types and composers of music during our meetings.

As we strive to cultivate interest in all types of music, we members receive an opportunity to display our proficiency in our certain field of music.

In addition to our main objective, the promotion of music appreciation, we assist the Senior Music Club by ushering and by furnishing talent for the chapel programs here at school.

Because of the varied tastes and talents of all the members, we know that we have developed a sincere appreciation of music which will add to our cultural as well as our personal growth in future years.

Advisor Mrs. Barron shows Diane Wiley a new addition to their collection of records. Selections range from all phases of music popular to classical.

FNA KEEPS CLINIC

When it came our turn to light our candles in the impressive ceremony in chapel, we were again aware of our hope for the future. Our goal, to become future nurses, is becoming brighter.

The main purpose of our club is to stimulate interest in the highly esteemed profession of nursing.

We became more fully acquainted with the organization and routine of hospitals by touring Kennestone, Grady, and St. Joseph.

One of our projects was to help with the X-ray Mobile Unit. Our exhibit for the Southeastern Fair was to dress dolls.

We acted as hostesses for the first state convention, which was held this spring.

Working in the clinic is helpful in learning nursing techniques. Demonstrating this are Sandra Young, Tish Bates, and Nancy Clotfelter.

FTA PREPARES

What are your suggestions for the bulletin board?"
 Are we ready to begin working on the favors?"
 These are only samples of the busy sounds that have come from Mrs. Vickery's room during the meetings of Future Teachers of America. We have kept busy this year with many projects. We have worked on the bulletin board for Homecoming chapel, and made Thanksgiving favors for Kennestone Hospital trays.
 We held an annual Ideal Teacher Banquet as a highlight to the year's activities. We also enjoyed substituting for elementary school teachers. This gives us an inside view of what we may expect as the future teachers of America. We have had a busy and exciting year, but we have enjoyed it.

Mrs. Vickery, M. E. Hodges and Carolyn Cosey begin to list the names of the ideal teacher.

Officers Wanda Fair, Mary Elizabeth Fletcher, Pat Campbell, and Rebecca Evans admire the plaque given to the auditorium by FTA.

FHA CLUBS COMBINE

Since our two clubs, the senior consisting of the tenth through twelfth grades and the junior consisting of the eighth and ninth grades, have combined, we have become one of the largest clubs in the school.

We feel we have made great strides in approaching our purpose of perfecting the home arts. Activities dealing with the different phases of home making comprised each month's agenda.

We girls in the senior section have participated in an all year project making drawings for the children at Creswell School to color. We furnished these drawings twice a week.

During Christmas season we baked cookies for the juvenile home. We also played Santa Claus for a family with seven children.

We in the junior division attended the FHA Fall District meeting in November. There we learned a few of the activities of the other FHA clubs.

On the social side we held the Sweetheart Ball in February. We all had a relaxed and enjoyable time at our cook-out at the end of the year.

We ended our very successful year by going to the state convention. This convention was as interesting and profitable as it had been in past years. We believe all who attended felt more deeply the purpose and the significance of our club. We hope the next year's club will be as successful with the combined groups.

President Barbara Smith, Senior, Vice President Gret Little, First Vice President Greta Abbott, Secretary Barbara Worley, and Treasurer Patsy Clapham prepare the project nest for demonstration to the class.

Susan Hall, Nancy Schuster, Sue Sellers, Maryann Mayes, Sue Roberts, Carrie Latchford, Bonnie Bonner, Sharon Graves, Mary Ellen, and others, all however, have been active and have participated to the fullest extent of their capabilities. Projects and activities have been fully expanded.

FBLA TAKES PART

As the Future Business Leaders of America we have concentrated on preparation for a business career through activities in school. As part of this preparation, we have worked as secretaries for teachers and as office assistants for Mrs. Swain.

This year, as before, we presented the typewriter to the senior having the highest average in the Business Education Department. In addition to the award, we have sold football concessions and given food to a needy family at Thanksgiving and Christmas as a few of our projects for this year.

We are very proud of our advisor, Miss Mary Ellen Smith, who has been in the Business Education Department of Marietta High for thirty-four years. Without her valuable assistance and advice, we are sure the club would lack much of its present spirit.

Not all FBLA has been work. We have had our annual Christmas party, a skating party, many socials during the year, and a chapel program.

One of the most interesting activities of the year was the FBLA Convention held at Rock Eagle. We always look forward to this state meeting because of our active part. This year we were excited and pleased when one of our members, Judy McTyre won the office of State Reporter. Another member Paula McKibben won first place in the spelling contest. Although the year is over we have many memories.

Vice-President, Troy Colley; President, Marie Wallace; and Secretary, Pam Sorrell help Miss Smith complete some secretarial work. Learning a few of the techniques of the business world is invaluable for the future.

Miss Query is fulfilling one of her many duties which make our library more efficient

Jo Whitfield, Mike Matthew, Charles Benbow, and Claire Moore are sorting the different issues of magazines

Claire Moore, Helen English, Faye Pickering and Ann Wilborn help keep everything in an orderly manner for benefit of the student.

AIDES ADVISE

Through our work in the library, we try to provide the school with an orderly, efficient, and up-to-date place in which to read and study

As part of our daily work we type notices for over due books, receive fines, keep books in order on the proper shelves. Our big task is taking inventory of the complete library

Just as other clubs, we have projects. This year we have delivered attendance sheets from the library to study halls in an effort to help teachers keep accurate records, and another project was helping with the distribution of programs for Homecoming Chapel

Our activities included attending the Georgia Convention of Library Aides which was held in Atlanta

Because our purpose is service, we have set high goals for our club. One main goal includes the continuation of a staff of workers, willing to be of help to students each day

Row 1 Shirley Henton, Doris Pearson, Faye Pickering, Lynn Shelley, Sue Myers, Helen English, Ann Wilborn, Jo Whitfield. Row 2 Charles Benbow, Mike Matthews, Nancy Mullins, Judy Vaughn, Claire Moore, Sue Bishop, Herman Stone, Jerry Langerfest. They are a most efficient and willing group of workers

NEW CLUB GROWS

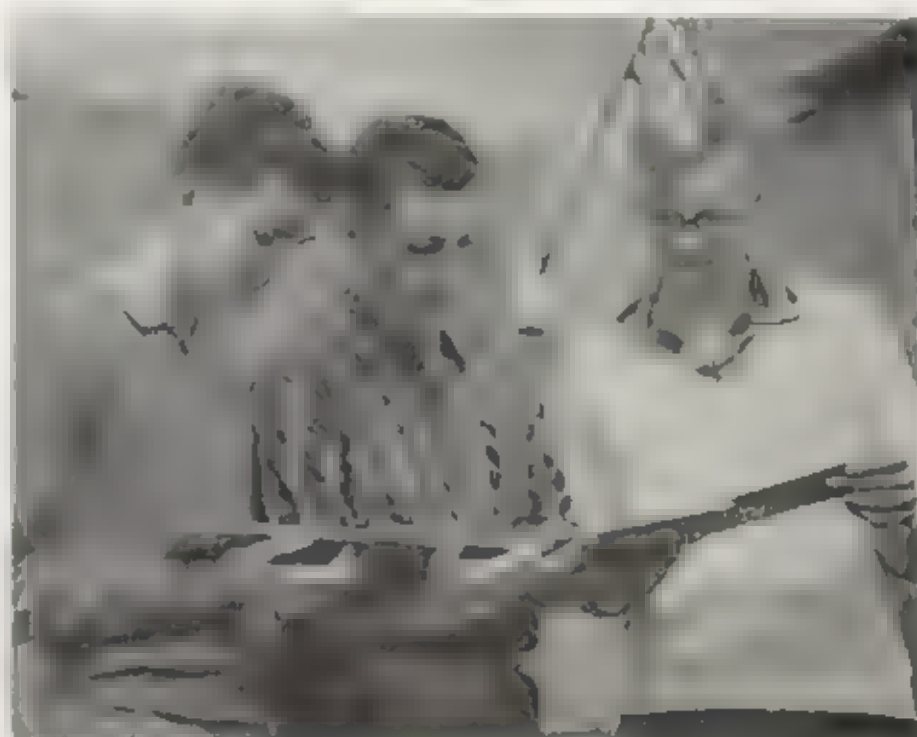

We in the Stamp and Coin Club have enjoyed sharing mutual interests with our fellow classmates in our new club organized during February of this year.

Our sponsors, Miss Nolen and Miss Smith, have been of great help to us in our work. Membership in the Stamp and Coin Club is open to any student with an interest in either stamps or coins and a willingness to co-operate with others.

At each of our interesting weekly meetings, we have combined both work and pleasure. We have discussed mint products, types of coin designs, magazines, catalogs, and collection books. We have exchanged stamps and coins with each other, and are constantly on watch for valuable stamps or coins which a fellow member may wish to have in his book.

By pursuing such hobbies we learn a great deal about the history behind our stamps and coins. Also we learn in detail the geography of many countries.

Charles Benbow, Cyril Bell, and Willie Johnson, officers, exchange coins and discuss their collections.

Ellis Ragland, Charles Benbow, Wallace Gardner, Willie Johnson, Hugh Dobbins, Cyril Bell, Eddie Lester, and Doug Duncan, members of the club, listen quietly to an interesting discussion about a rare coin. All members do research on various coins and search for obscure facts or details about their various origins.

SR. BAND PREPARES FOR CONCERTS

Our lazy summer vacation came to an abrupt ending when we all gathered at band camp in the middle of August. With a great deal of work and concentration we accomplished many things. All was not just work and no play. We managed to find time to relax and to enjoy ourselves greatly. All in all camp gave us the opportunity to be well prepared for our heavy schedule this year.

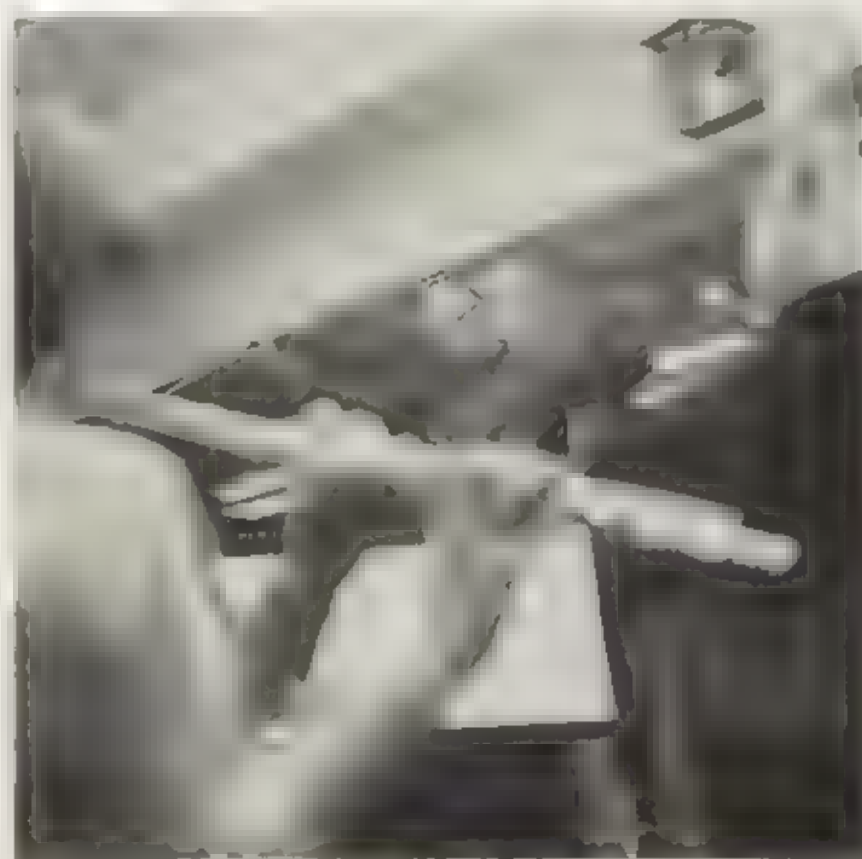

We performed during the half-time of ten football games. These programs allowed us to demonstrate our marching ability and musical talent for our student body and the visitors. We all put forth an effort to make each program special.

School spirit was kept at a high level during the pep rallies and the annual Pep Parade. We performed at these events and helped contribute to the overall picture of student participation.

When the Cobb County Fair came to town, it was a time for fun. So, we joined in the fun and marched in a parade for this occasion.

Winter not only brought the cold weather but the concert season as well. Our Christmas Concert was an exceptionally popular occasion. Our repertoire consisted of selections from all phases of music.

Without Mr. "Mac," our year wouldn't have been so successful or so enjoyable.

Mr. McKeown, affectionately known as Mr. "Mac," leads the band in one of their numbers.

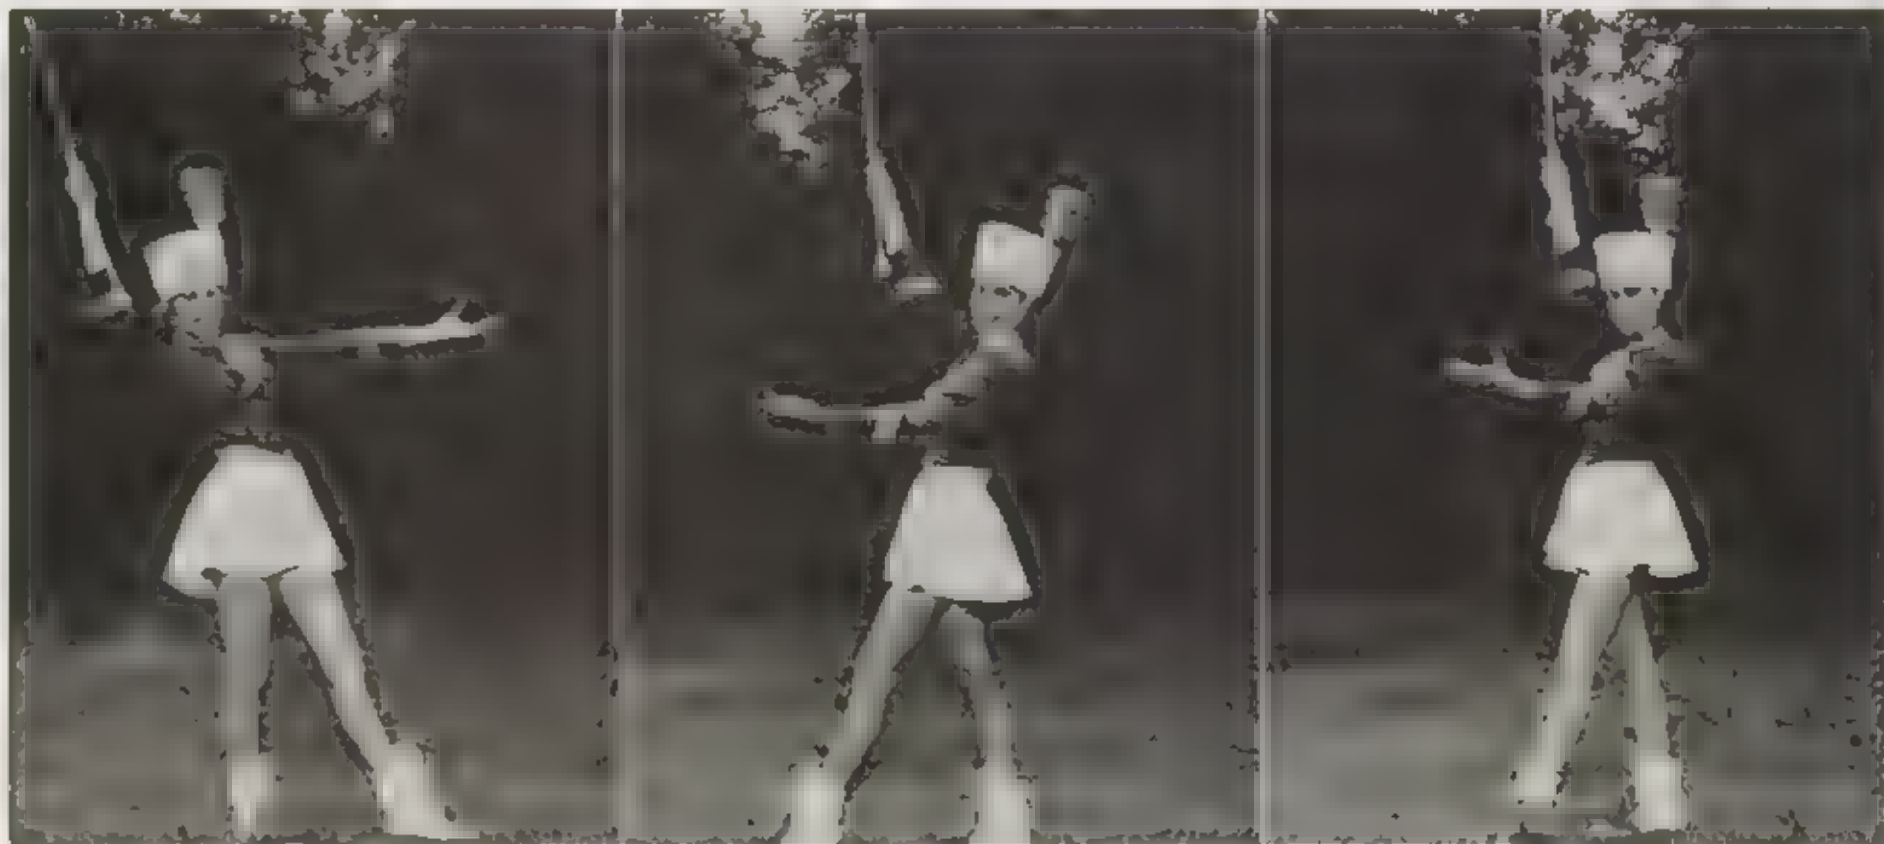

President, Bobby Mintz; Treasurer, Jerry Flowers; and Secretary, Jackie Davis take notes of the performance of the band and the scenes. These officers are responsible for the programs. Vice-President, Jimmy Brown is not pictured.

Terl Barton and Jimmy Johnson rehearse during their lunch hour for their performance in the State Festival. Various members of the band performed in this festival. Many were rewarded for their hard work by rating a superior.

Continuous practice sessions were held with reasons for the outstanding performances of the band. In these rehearsals the members learn techniques and a love for all phases of music.

MAJORETTES AIM FOR PERFECTION

This year our squad was made up of six girls. Of these six, three were seniors.

We had a very busy year during 1958-59. To keep us busy during the winter, we performed in the halftime show of each football game. We learned a new routine for each performance, all of which we enjoyed doing. Every Monday and Wednesday, we would practice during 3rd period. It was a lot of fun, but also hard work.

We also got to lead the various parades this year. We lead the Cobb County Fair Parade and the Christmas Parade. Both were a lot of fun for us.

We attended the Music Festival, where we received high ratings for our solos and ensembles.

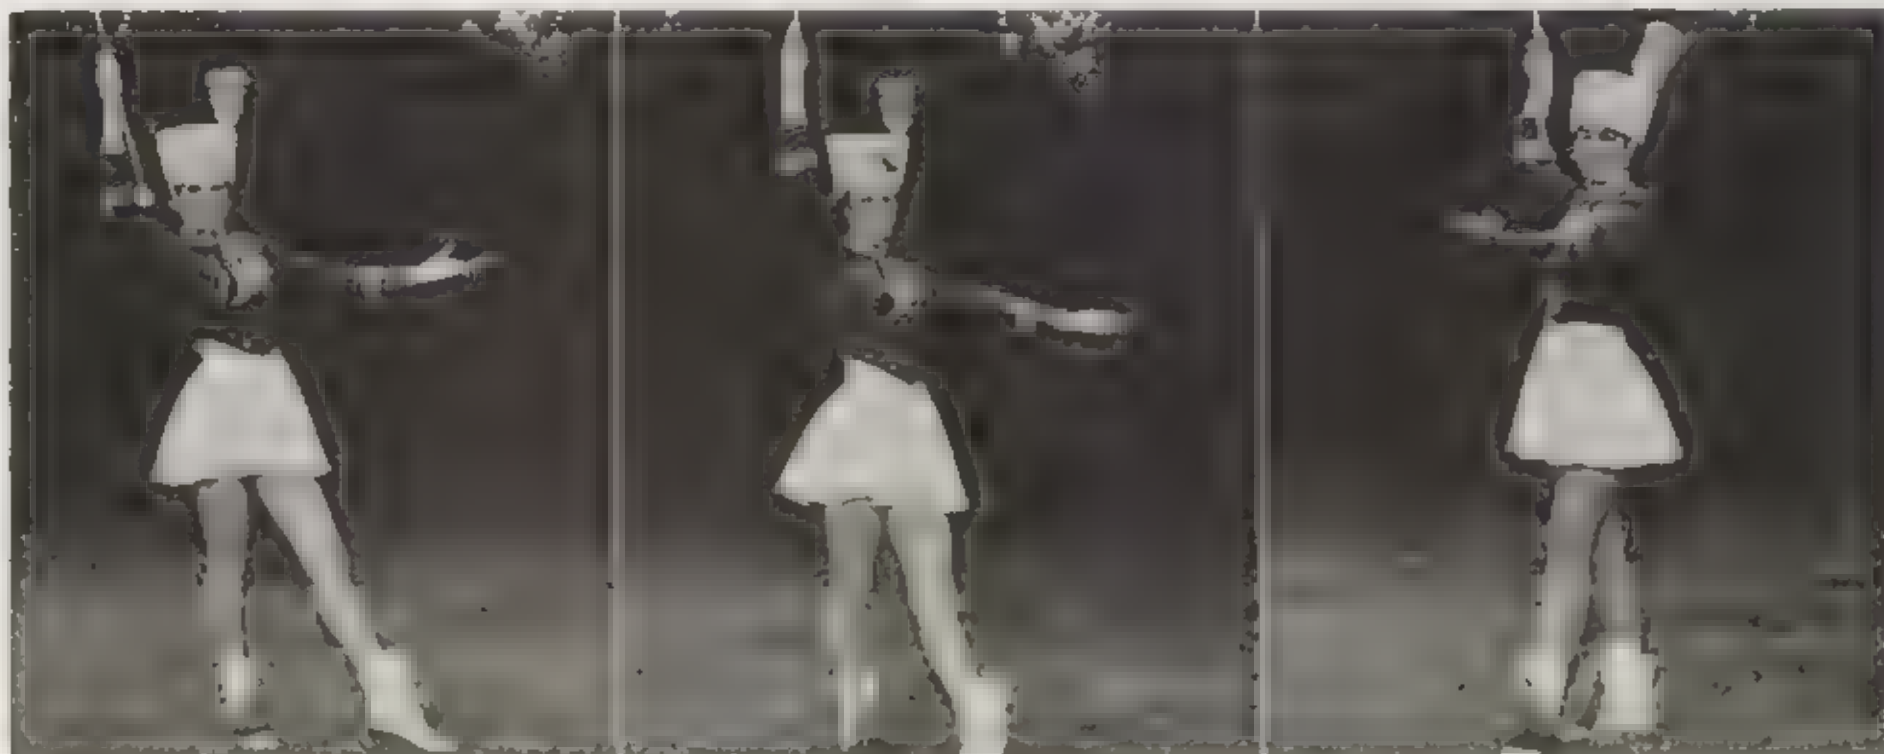

We were very fortunate this year in having the privilege to twirl for various organizations in Marietta and Atlanta.

We have really had a very successful year.

MARIETTES ATTEND TWIRLING CLINIC

In time to a lively march played by the MHS band, we proudly stepped out on the football field during the half-time shows. The excitement always ran high, but we were consistently composed and calm during our performance. Our previous training always stood by us and we felt that we provided an additional sparkle for the spirit of the students. One of our most successful programs was given on Halloween Night. It was well received by everyone concerned.

Our co-captains, Julia Berens and Suzanne Donehoo, have done a wonderful job in leading us in all the many parades in which we marched. Their expert leadership was one of the chief factors in contributing to our fine performances.

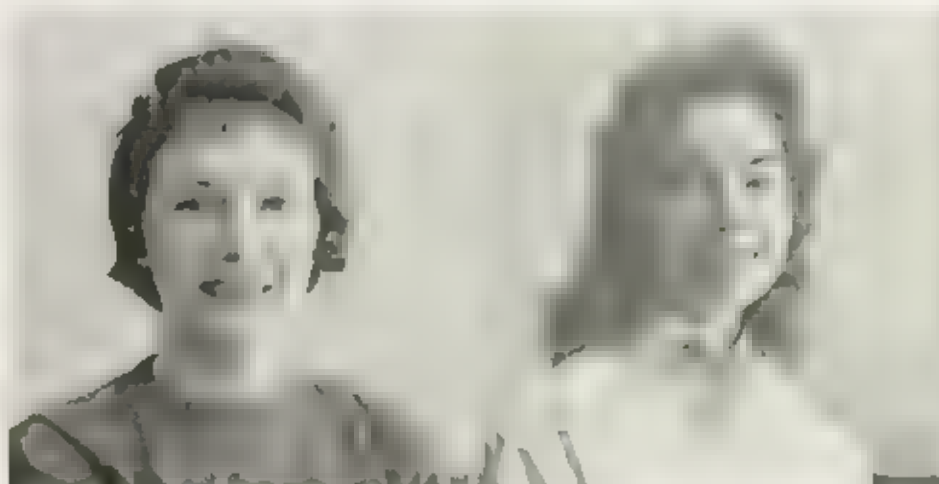

A twirling clinic was provided for all of us who wanted to participate in the annual Regional Festival. We practiced diligently on our many routines. Our group has become an experienced unit.

GLEE CLUBS SING

We in the Marietta High Music Department have had reason to be proud of the achievements of our groups during this year. Our department is divided into several sections. The Girls' Choir, Girls' Glee Club, and the Mixed Choir all meet during the day in scheduled classes. We always enjoy that period in the day when we can take a break and spend a delightful hour with our friends during our practice periods.

In the music department we learn not only many valuable things about music, but we develop the ability to work together as a group.

Again this year we had our annual show, and presented our Christmas Concert. We participated in the festival and we were able to obtain high ratings as we have in the past.

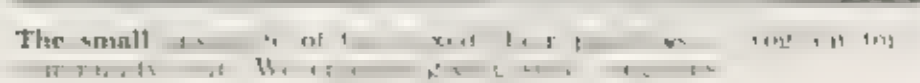

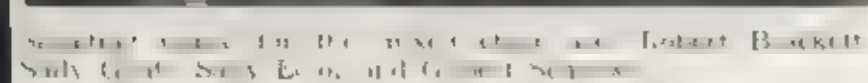

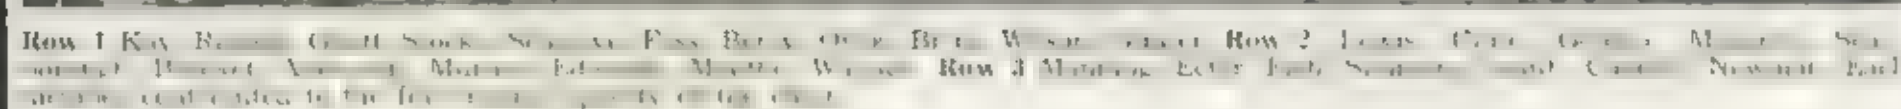

Alice Barron and Margaret King straighten the music shelf for Miss Ogden.

Caroline Rachels and Carol Copeland blend their voices to produce a harmonious effect during a duet in voice class. Extra voice classes add training to members.

Sue Roberts listens to a tape recording of the annual Christmas festival music. Everyone in our music department appreciates this piece of equipment.

67-117-5,5

Cheers reigned supreme at all games and sports at Marietta High. The students' enthusiasm was unequalled anywhere. We were proud of our athletic prowess, but sportsmanship was emphasized more highly. Daily practice also played an important part in the role of the athlete. We will forever recall the exciting events at MHS.

CHEERLEADERS

The gals who whoop up the cheers were a vital part of our football, basketball and baseball victories this year. Their contagious enthusiasm spread across the bleachers and bounced back to the Devils as the moral booster that often capped the winning point.

This year, as contrasted with previous years, our cheerleaders underwent a more strenuous elimination program. The three steps were: elimination by the teachers on an overall basis of good qualities; elimina-

COACHES GUIDE

Head Coach French Johnson has been at Marietta for the last three years. He coached our team to a record victory last year. Coach Bill Lundy, completing his third year at Marietta, directed our backfield. Also he is the boys' physical education director. Coach J. L. Jones, on his second year at Marietta, took charge of the line to use it to the best advantage.

Captain Gene Davenport, instructed by our coaches, led our team to many victories this year. Gene has played on the varsity team for four years and received scholarship grants from three colleges to come and play football.

Football is very important in the lives of all the players. It is instrumental in the development of leadership and character. It teaches the boys self discipline and gives them drive and initiative. None of this would be possible without the expert guidance of our coaches. The coaches have gained the respect of all the players this year.

DEVILS GO WILD

Led by three fine coaches and an excellent captain, we achieved a record of 7 wins and 3 losses. We practiced long and hard during the month of August and we were well rewarded by such a successful season. The first four games were complete victories, as we rolled over our opponents. After the first four games, we had to fight for every yard and every TD that we made. As Coach Johnson coined it, "the honeymoon is over!" Campbell, Marietta's long rival, came seeking revenge for last year. Our boys put up a stout defense, but could not stop the Campbell squad.

Marist came with the same determination as the Panthers, and had it not been for the daring plays on the part of our team, they would have beaten us.

Sylvan and Griffin followed, both teams winning, but not without stiff opposition from our experienced line. We got back on our feet and severely loked Gainesville and Decatur to end a great season of 7 wins and 3 losses.

DEVILS TRIUMPH

On September 5 we began our 1958 football season in fine style defeating the South Cobb Panthers by a score of 12-0.

A capacity crowd saw our junior quarterback Johnny Sinclair dominate the entire game. After only four plays we had scored. Slippery Sinclair turned the ball in a fool hat keep play for 44 yards and a score. In the third quarter Sinclair scampered 62 yards for a touchdown which was rejected because of a penalty. Our other score came in the fourth quarter as Roger Senter running from a wingback position, blocked a sustained drive of 44 yards with a plunge off tackle for the tally. Bud Wimpert at leftback played a fine game and was responsible for much yardage.

Our defense and line play were exceptional for an opening game. We played very aggressive football and kicked very good as a team, considering the fact that many of our starters were inexperienced.

South Cobb by means played a poor game. They stopped us on several drives but they weren't ready to catch the big Devils.

DEVILS PREVAIL

By scoring 4 touchdowns to Canton's none, we followed up the successful win over South Cobb, Cherokee found the bull-like rushes of Sinclair, Grissom and Wimpee to be too hot to handle. Wimpee and Sinclair put on a sterling performance before our fans. Wimpee going for three touchdowns and Sinclair spinning the ball 118 yards in 4 passes. We lost a fine player in the third quarter when Bobby Cole suffered a broken nose in a pile up.

Early in the game, Sinclair galloped the final 37 yards on a "keep" after the team had marched down the field for 56 yards. Garner added the conversion to make the score 7-0.

After Cherokee had resisted a ground attack during the third quarter, Sinclair fired a 52-yard pass to Sen-ter. Grissom picked up 12 yards in 3 tries then Wimpee bucked across from the 3.

Sinclair and Wimpee both contributed to the final touchdown. Sinclair carrying for 12 and Wimpee dash- ing for 11. Wimpee ran off tackle to weave his way through the Cherokee line to score the final 11.

The combination of Steve Simpson and Bobby Cogg is the key to the victory.

CATS SUCCUMB

When we handed the Russell Wildcats a 45-0 polishing we gained our third consecutive victory of the year.

The game started with a bang when Johnny Sinclair received a kickoff on his own 15. He got key blocks from Wimpee and Kozloski and then galloped 85 yards for the TD. Garner's PAT was perfect.

Marietta's later Camp blocked a punt, and in 7 plays we scored our second TD.

We added another before the quarter ended, and the second and third units started taking over for the rest of the evening. Russell, on the next kickoff, tumbled at their own 25, and Camp recovered for us. Sinclair fooled everybody with a fake to Wimpee, and sent himself into the end zone for the third TD of the game.

The play of the second and third units was pleasing to all the coaches, the final score being 45-0.

JACKETS LOSE

In spite of a valiant effort on Sprayberry's part we rambled to a 56-0 victory making four successive wins. From the latter part of the first quarter, second and third string backs were used to score nine touchdowns on Sprayberry.

Three of our touchdowns were completed in 2 plays. In one instance, Wimpee carried for 4 and on the second play broke through and ran 50 yards for a TD. Later, Sprayberry fumbled and we recovered. Grissom carried for 6 and Wimpee covered the final 16 yards. We recovered after the Jackets had again fumbled the ball. Then Sinclair went for 19 and Grissom cashed 16 yards to score.

The second and third string worked for the remainder of the evening with the exception of Sinclair's return to the game once in the third and once in the fourth quarters. During the third quarter Sinclair galloped 44 yards for a touchdown.

PANTHERS SOAR

Unable to stop a fired-up Campbell eleven, we conceded to the Panthers 16-7 before the largest crowd (8,000) ever to witness a football game at Northeast Stadium.

The Panthers got their first break of the game as a bad snap from center sailed over Ranger Senter's head through the end zone for an automatic safety.

In the second quarter Campbell scored on 5 plays. On the next kickoff Senter moved the ball to the 45 yard line where we set up shop. It took us nine plays to get our only score of the game. Warner's PAT was perfect and we were behind 9-7.

During the hard-fought third quarter neither team was able to score. Then in the 4th quarter Campbell proved their ability and went from the 22 yard line getting out the yardage all the way for a touchdown. Northeast team scored again in the game, and Campbell won on 1-0 win 16-7.

MARIST YIELDS

In the most thrilling game of the year Marist conceded to us 13-12

Neither team could get going until the third quarter. Both teams came back after half-time with renewed strategy. After Marist got their first touchdown Johnny Sinclair made a beautiful 57 yard run as he spun out of the grasp of at least four tacklers, turned on the speed, and hit the end zone.

Marist moved ahead 12 to 7 in the early moments of the fourth quarter. With 3 minutes left to play we started marching from our own 35 yard line gaining out 34 yards. With a matter of seconds left on the clock, Captain Gene Davenport asked the referees for a time out, but our time outs had run out. Basswell pulled Davenport back into the huddle and just as the ball was snapped 3 seconds showed on the clock. Simpson caught a desperation pass from Sinclair to save the game for us 13-12.

DEVILS DOWNED BY SYLVAN "BEARS"

After taking on two of the best teams in the state we lost a heartbreaker to Sylvan. During the first half we were at the mercy of the Bears being scored on twice and practically run off the field.

During the third quarter we shook loose and scored in 3 plays from 69 yards out. Bill Wimpee, who had been ailing, failed to convert. This point resulted in the loss of the game.

Still in the third quarter Sinclair scored from 37 yards out climaxing a 66 yard march. Bill Wimpee's conversion was good and we were behind only 1 point.

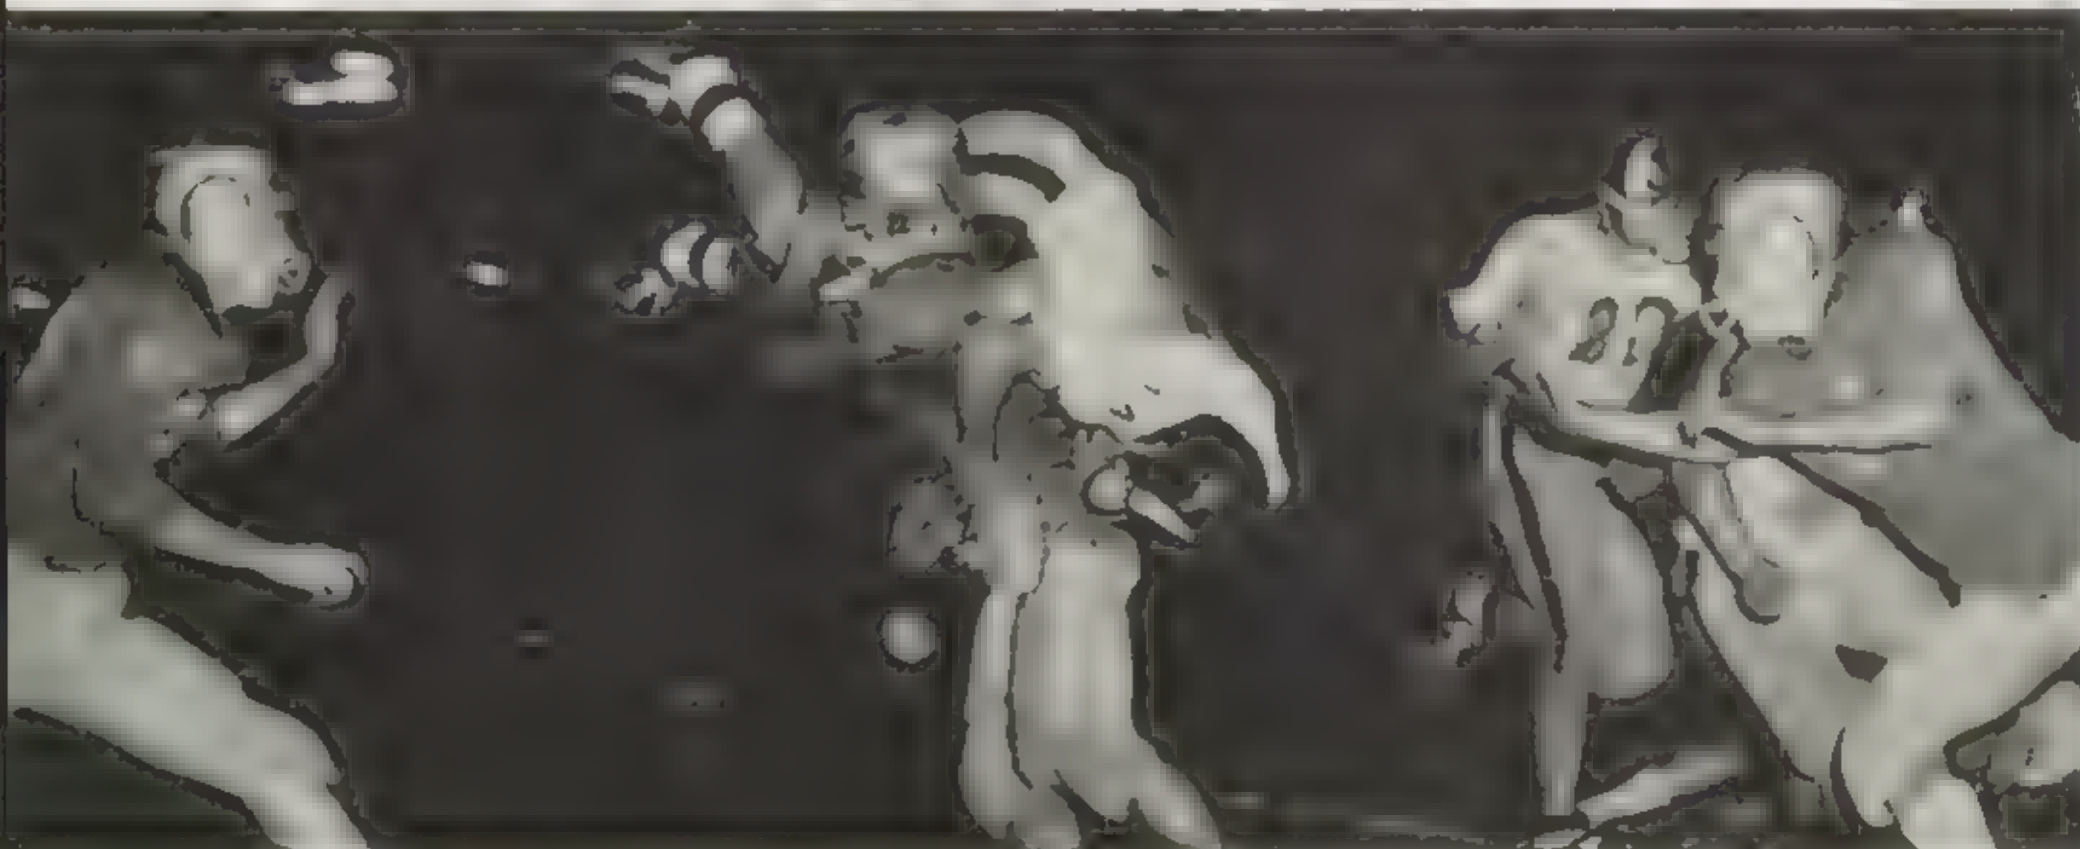

Then Sylvan's Cooper got the ball and moved it 45 yards. When the Bears stalled, Davis kicked to Marietta. We couldn't move and Senter kicked back for 44 yards. Davis ran the ball 45 yards to our 45 and the Bears went the rest of the way to make the score 21-17.

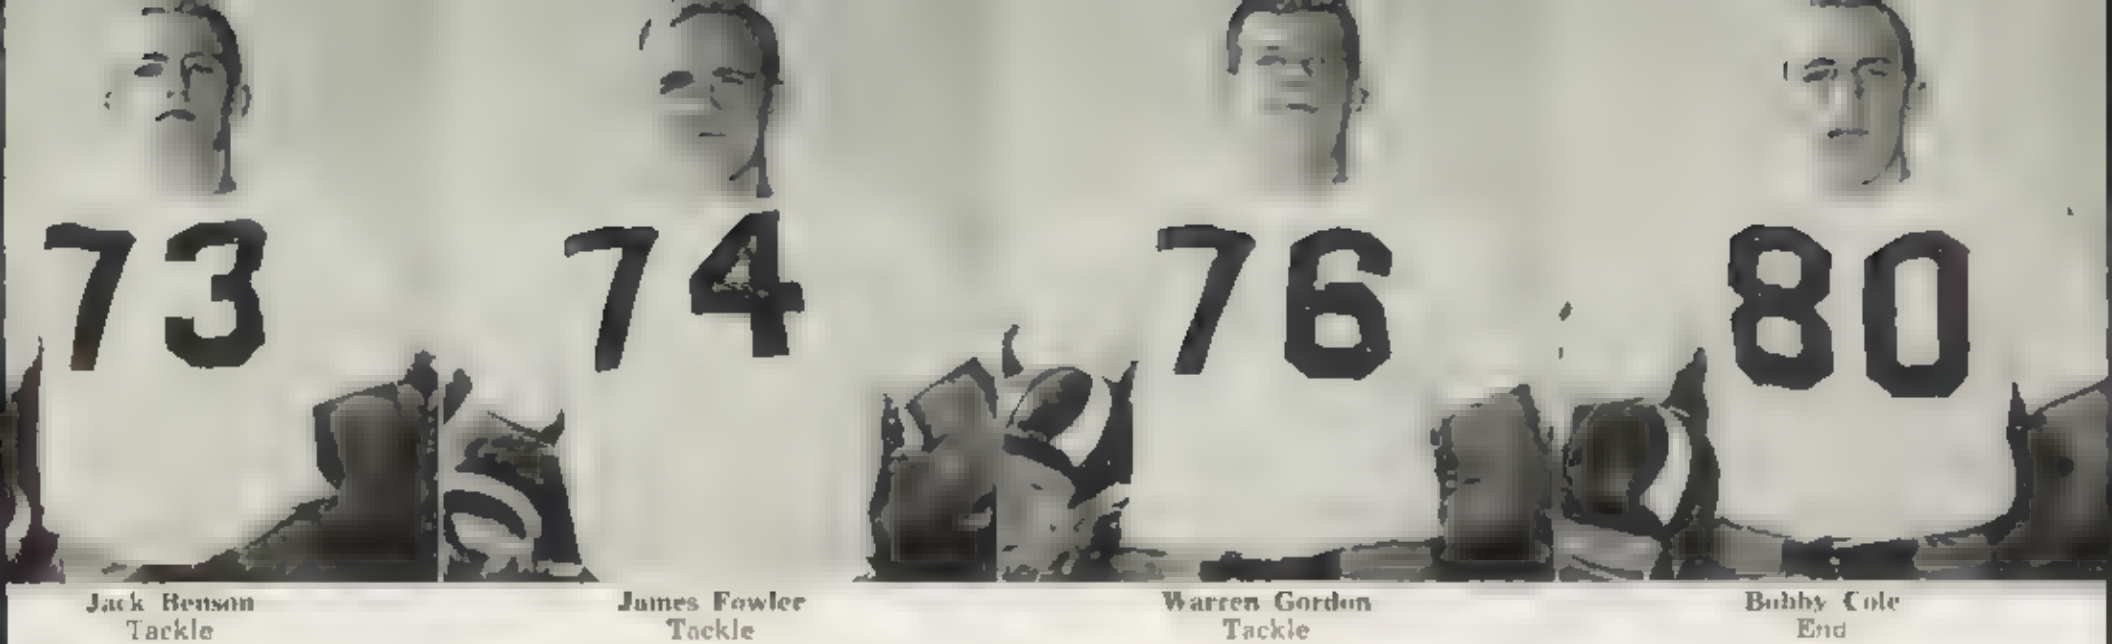

We got going in the last quarter after Camp blocked Davis' punt on their 46. John Sinclair then threw a 40-yard screen pass to Grissom and in the next play Grissom's conversion was good.

Our team was far from outplayed but slightly out-scored in the Griffin contest. On four occasions we had the ball in scoring position and failed to go for the needed yardage.

We made the best offensive showing of the season by passing a total of 384 offensive yards. Most of these yards came through the air via Johnny Sinclair passes. Late in the second quarter one of the ten successful passes was good to Rodger Senter for 42 yards and a score. On the ground, halfback Don Gresson was effective for our cause.

The first Griffin touchdown resulted from one of the strangest plays ever seen in high school football. As our quarterback took the ball from center it mysteriously spiraled in the air. Davis of Griffin caught the ball in mid air and streaked for the score.

In this game our defensive line showed some of its best play. For three periods we completely stopped the big Griffin fullback, Ralph Westmoreland, but allowed him and his team to escape in the last stages.

Visions of Griffin paydirt loom before fullback Bill Wimpee as a yard producing gallop around left end is about to be halted.

DEVILS CRUSH FINAL PAIR

This year we ended a 52-year stampede by the Red Elephants of Gainesville. The spell was broken as we defeated them by a score of 26-0.

Our defensive play clinched the game as we took advantage of Gainesville errors. In the second quarter Gary Hall intercepted an Elephant pass on our own 40 yard line and rated 99 yards for a score. Our other touchdown came as a result of sustained effort and brilliant teamwork.

Our eleven turned in one of the best performances of the year as we trampled Decatur 20-6.

In the first half Decatur scored once capitalizing on an intercepted pass. Sancier hit Senter with a 21 yard pass and we tied things up 6-6.

In the third quarter Sancier completed 53 yards for our second TD. We made one more TD making the final score 20-6. Since we were the underdogs this was a big victory for us.

JUNIOR IMPS SUCCEED

The Junior Varsity, coached by Marion Blume, E. M. Frederick, and James Ruggles completed a successful season with a 5-1-1 record.

We lost to Campbell 7-0 and then tied with them 20-20. We rolled over Canton twice beating them 23-0 the first game, and whipping them 36-6 the second game. Sperry beat the same late as we stopped them 36-6 the first game and smothered them 19-0 the second game. The last opponent was South Cobb who in spite of a good show lost 6-12.

Jerry McBee and Tony Musarra did an excellent job coaching the team, and there were many outstanding players.

The B team is really a beginner's course for all future athletes. Most of these boys turned out again in the spring of the year for the first football trials. Many of them showed promise in the M-Day game and will be seen next year as varsity players.

JUNIOR DEVILS BREAK EVEN

Under the skillful direction of Coach J. L. Jones the Junior Varsity completed a highly successful season. A review of the year's work showed a record of 7 victories and 7 defeats. Coach Jones worked with the team throughout the season correcting mistakes and improving the efficiency of the team. Although this is Coach Jones' first year at directing the Junior Varsity, he has been line coach of the football team for two years.

The managers for the team this year were Jeff Elliot and Bill Sherman. They have the unattractive but very necessary job of keeping the equipment together and in top order. They are required to be at practice sessions and at games just as the players are. Coach Jones was highly pleased with the outstanding performances of Bill Sherman, Gary Hill, Dickie Thomas and Bill Wymer. These boys will be playing on the varsity next year.

GIRLS ACHIEVE NEEDED EXPERIENCE

Because of lack of experience this year, we didn't have the championship team we had displayed for the past two years, but our girls practiced good sportsmanship and were real hustlers.

We finished the regular season with a 9 won 6 loss record in region play, and we had an over-all record of 15 wins and 7 losses.

In the Region 4-AAA tournament at Russell we lost a heartbreaker to Griffin. Dinah Tumlin tied the game up, in the last three seconds of the game, 50 all. Griffin went ahead to win 56 to 52 in the overtime.

Spearheading all of our attacks was Dinah Tumlin, who sank a total of 730 points and kept an average of 31.7. Two midseason surprises, Gwenn Wells and Joanne Knapp, who both had a 6.1 average, also put in their share of points and free shots.

On the defensive side of the court Florence Rengle, Maggie Southerland, and Gwenny Brown improved as the season progressed and proved to be outstanding in every respect. Dana Cain proved to be quite versatile, as she was switched from forward to guard regularly during the season.

With the excellent coaching of Mrs. Charles Hipsher, with all six of the starting girls returning, and with good prospects coming up from the lower classes, we seem to be set for an outstanding season next year.

LEADERS DIRECT

Responsible for a very successful season and a record of 15 victories to 5 defeats is Coach Harrison Anderson. He began shaping up the team early in the year, and when the season began, the results of his efforts proved good.

Working in close association with Coach Anderson were co-captains Jimmy Byrd and Charles Bagby. These boys directed the team in fine fashion throughout the season. All the boys on the team looked to these two for guidance and inspiration.

Two important people who work behind the scenes, seldom seen by the people, are the managers. Fortunately, we had two very efficient managers to take care of the Devils. Alvin Embry and Olan Newman worked very hard this year and deserve much credit.

TEAM COMPETES

The 1959 boys' basketball team, sparked by co-captains Jimmy Byrd and Charles Bagby, turned out a record of 15 victories and 5 defeats. This record proved to be one of the finest in the past history of Marietta High teams.

In the first round of the Region 4-AAA tournament Marietta lost to Southwest DeKalb 48-67 in a heart-breaking game. During the regular season we soundly defeated Southwest two times, but when we went to Russell for the tournament, the story was quite different. The entire team seemed to be quite tense and generally had an "off day." There were several moments when it seemed that the Blue Devils would come to life, but we could never muster enough drive to overcome the ready Panthers.

Charles Bagby led the region as high scorer. Other outstanding players included Howard Simpson, Jackie Turner, Charles Waters, Buddy Black, Jimmy Byrd and Arthur Luedtke. Jack Tebeau, Kip Fowler, Mike Clark, Jackie Turner and Arthur Luedtke are all on the graduating list. All these boys are lettermen, so there will be a big dent in next year's team. Although this is true, the presence of many other returning lettermen makes the outlook for the future appear very good, and should make the 1960 team a region leader.

BASEBALL TEAM SHOWS TALENTS

As March went on like a lamb, our baseball team started their 1959 series. With quite a few lettermen returning to the team, and with a host of new recruits joining the squad, we had a good start for a fine team.

Pitching this year was in the hands of veterans Wayne Cox, Jackie Turner, Charles Bagby, and Gary Hill. Newcomers to the mound were Clay Robinson, Jerry Cox, and Rodger Senter.

Ken Braswell was behind the plate for his second year as catcher of the team. Backing him was Lloyd Shankles, who will see a lot of action next year.

Taking turns covering first base were Mike Clark, Jackie Turner and Arthur Luedtke. Terry Fulmer, Bobby Cole, Horace Armfield, and Jimmy Byrd took over the infield for the 1959 team, and catching the balls in the outfield were Eddie Ruddell, Rodger Senter and Don Grissom.

Coach Andy Anderson, who also coaches the basketball team, took over our baseball team for his seventeenth consecutive year. Helping the boys with the bats, balls, and many other jobs were Olan Newman, Joe Kozloski and Billy James.

Next year we should have a seasoned team again with many underclassmen returning.

Co-captains Jackie Turner and Rodger Senter, discuss the possibilities of this year's team.

CINDERMEN RUN

Our 1959 track team opened with only a few returning lettermen who were expected to carry the burden

We have a large number of boys each year to try out for the track team. All the coaches encourage boys who play football to participate in some sort of Spring sport. Because of this a great number of the boys on our track team are also on our football team. Track has always played an important role in our sports program

Fleet-footed Ralph Brickey, Earnest Warren, John Sherrod, Colquitt Baker and David Norris made many runners bite their dust on the long distance runs this year. Ralph is the only one who will not be returning next year

Johnny Sinclair and W. C. Fields, who ran like jets over the hurdles last spring, looked good this year. Fields will graduate, but Sinclair has another year after this one

Wayne Wallace, Tommy Dupre, Bill Wimpee and Johnny Sinclair were the sprint men this year. All are mighty fast and won many firsts. All these boys are returning next year

Ken Kirk and Allen Dean threw the javelin as they did last year. Both are returning lettermen

Bobby Reeves managed this year's team and Coach Bill Lundy did the tutoring of the boys. This is Coach Lundy's third consecutive year at coaching track here at Marietta.

Allen Dean watches Ken Kirk demonstrate the proper form for throwing the javelin.

Johnny Sinclair, Woody Wallace, Bill Wallace and Tommy Deane prepare to sprint.

W. C. Fields and Johnny Sinclair easily clear the hurdles at a practice session.

Ralph Brickey, Ernest Warren, John Speed, Court Baker and David Norris practice their long distance running.

Charlie Jones, Remley Brumby, Bubba Johnson and Larry Surber. All four believe in keeping in constant practice at the golf course and that playing golf is as strenuous a game as football or basketball.

GOLF TEAM LOOKS TOWARD FUTURE

Four members made up our golf team this year. They were Remley Brumby, Larry Surber, Bubba Johnson and Charlie Jones.

In the first match of the season Decatur defeated us by six strokes. Paul Johnson was low man for the Devils.

Remley Brumby was low man for Marietta in the final match against Headland. Winning by fifteen strokes, this victory evened their record to an impressive 1-1 for the year.

Coach French Johnson disclosed that he is really going to put the emphasis on golf when the new 18-hole golf course at Kennesaw is completed in 1960, and he says he will schedule many home matches here every year.

In past years our players have been made up of boys who played on the Marietta Country Club course regularly, starting out with their golfing families as youths and working automatically into the Marietta High golf team when they reached the high school age.

TENNIS BECOMES MAJOR MHS SPORT

Sparked by several enthusiastic players, our tennis teams compiled a good over-all record. The boys' record was not as impressive as the girls. Dinah Tumlin was the pace-setter with the first singles wins. Defeating Germ in 4-1 and 4-2, Decatur 5-1, Druid Hills 3-0 and 4-0, Sprayberry 6-0 and Headland 4-0, the girls finished with a perfect record.

Guy Wells took the leading role in the boys' games playing the first singles matches. They completed the season with the record of 6 wins and 3 losses.

According to Coach Funderburke, there will be a few openings next year since some of the team is composed of seniors. These are Jake Cogburn, Buddy Moore, and Guy Wells.

On the other hand, Marilyn Ingersol is the only senior on our girls' team. Coach Hipsher will be returning with six lettermen, so it is evident that the coming year's team is sure to shine.

Coach Hipsher estimates the backcourt team to Danel and Kent. The girls were heavily counted on to do a good job when playing.

Dan Mowrey, Brad Martin, and Tommy Clark assist Coach E. M. Funderburke on putting up the nets for a vigorous season.

The bell began and ended each busy day at MHS. We worked hard in our classes — there was so much to do — so little time. The spare time we could save from our busy schedules was spent in renewing old acquaintances and in making new ones. We will never forget the homework we did and the friends we made at Marietta High School.

The senior class of 1959 had among its number, many capable leaders. Sylvia Norton, Ben Hill, Evelyn Dasher, Jackie Bell, and Gene Davenport were among the most outstanding.

Seniors Prepare

Five years ago we entered the halls of Marietta High. As petrified, inexperienced sub-freshmen, little did we realize that we would ever obtain the composure and confidence belonging to the seniors then. As we think back we see that all of our years spent at Marietta High have built up to make this, our last year, the most exciting and memorable ever.

The memories which are many, we will carry with us for the rest of our lives. We will always remember the hard work and outstanding scholarship achieved by many of our class members. Deserving awards and scholarships were bestowed upon these honor students.

Many people proved to be capable leaders. Evelyn Dasher, for outstanding work on the Olympian, Gene Stanley, for the monthly production of the award-winning Pitchfork; Martha Reynolds for her oratorical leadership; Jackie Bell, for his job as drum-major of our famous performing band and Ben Hill, for his all-around leadership qualities, especially as president of the student council.

We will always remember the many wonderful friends we have made among the faculty. Our teachers and advisers have helped us in many ways in our work.

We are proud to have been a part of the life and activities at Marietta High. We hope the part we have played will enable us to meet the challenges which confront us as we journey out into the world to face the responsibilities of life.

Mrs. Lee, the senior faculty adviser, helped many students to get accepted in colleges and to get valuable scholarships. She was aided by Jimmy Smith, Janet Teem and Katie Tumpane.

In memory of Jerry Jones who was killed in a hunting accident on December 2. The school always remembers him as a boy who loved to hunt and to be outdoors. He was well liked by his teachers and fellow students.

Seniors like many others tried their best year. Trying very hard to make a good grade are Diane Hobbs, Jimmy Lamer, Julia Berens, Linda White and Tommy Anderson.

The senior officers have worked very hard this year on their projects. They are Kip Fowler, pres.; Bobby Mintz, vice pres; Janet Teem, sec.; and Elizabeth Lamar, treas.

Something different has been introduced in the physics department by Mr. Stewart. He has been experimenting with a new method of teaching which consists of a series of films following the lessons in the textbook. Andrea St. John, Arthur Luedike, Durham Hardage, and Anthony Williams are pictured here as they observe the film illustrating the coefficient of heat expansion. This along with other varied experiments, served to provide the students with a good foundation in physics for the coming years in college.

Dances play an important part in the social lives of the seniors. The G. Brock sponsored a Lucky '13' presented a musical situation in which the girls asked the boys for a date and treated them to an evening of music and dancing. This is one of the students' regular activities at the Main Campus. The TAC Christmas formal, second only to the Junior-Senior, is one of the biggest dances of the year. Robert Scott, Jake Cogburn, Jimmy Smith, Felton Hagood, Mike Clark, Buddy Moore and their dates enjoy an enchanted evening.

Sports cars, T-model Ford, and other hot rods and jeeps, all seemed to be the rage at Marietta High School this year. There were a few thunderbirds, one or two volkswagens, a few jeeps and at least one old T-model Ford. These different cars were motored by boys and girls alike; in fact, many of the girls' cars were convertibles. Convertibles were also very popular. Players Boatner, Ish Bates, Rosemary Shipp, Carol Hall, Katie Turner, Frances Staley and the Daffodils try hard at making their jeep a convertible.

The English department experimented with a new program this year. We did the physics department. The program consisted of giving the students a series of tests to determine their reading speed and comprehension. The results of these tests were used to determine the students' reading speed and comprehension. The students read works of the classics. Jackie Bell, Elizabeth Hawthorne, and Betty Grant were inspired by the reading of Shakespeare to create the model of the Globe Theater.

This year has not been all hard work and no play for the senior class. The weekend parties and the dances after the football and basketball games formed the slate of events during the fall of the year. Over the Christmas holidays, Open House parties and cocktail parties were very popular with everyone. Bebe Brumby, a gracious hostess, serves punch to Judy James, Pat Bates, Tish Bates, Helen Warner, Carol Hall, Bob Binkley, and Lucia Smith. Everyone enjoyed the outdoor weiner roasts and picnics in the spring.

The rugged outdoorsman completely describes the seniors of this year. Almost everyone participated wholeheartedly in some outdoor activity. Hunting, fishing, and deer proved to be a very popular sport. The seniors enjoyed the peace and quiet of the woods. The seniors also enjoyed the outdoors in the summer. The seniors also enjoyed the outdoors in the winter. The seniors also enjoyed the outdoors in the spring. The seniors also enjoyed the outdoors in the fall.

The art department was very busy and interesting subject this year. The seniors who participated in this activity received much enjoyment and learned many things from Mr. Willis Strother. Their projects consisted of making clay pots, painting pottery, and working with wood. They also made jewelry and other items. Mrs. Strother, Miss Patricia Kato, and Miss Dunning assisted in their work.

The senior year is a time when a student begins to think seriously about his school work though this should have been thought about many years before. It seems as though he has been doing nothing for twelve years and now he has to catch up on his work. When the work comes from the end of the long, trying day. But they must do it. So, everyone studies together. Cassie Baldwin, Ben Hall, Phyllis Beatty, Rodger Senter, and Bud Moore think this good.

Juniors Advance

Only one more year to go, slowly but surely we are reaching the top. Time passes by rapidly as we step into our English, geometry, chemistry, French, Latin, or shorthand class. We take part in all the school activities. We are making the best out of our last year of preparation for our senior responsibilities.

Some of our outstanding members this year of whom we are very proud are Johnny Sinclair and Bobby Cole, next year's football captains. Our varsity football lettermen were Johnny Sinclair, Denny Chunn, Warren Gordon, Bobby Cole, and Bill Wimpee. In basketball Charles Bagby and Jimmy Byrd were co-captains. Gary Hill, Howard Simpson, Charles Waters, Hayden McLean, Buddy Black, and Jennings Patterson also lettered.

We are also proud of the three junior cheerleaders, Betty Guthrie, Nancy Mathis, and Marcia Watkins. In the Valentine Ball Sue Brown and Ernest Warren represented us well. Beverly Moore and Sandra Wyatt, Sue and Ernest's campaign managers, worked hard. A word of congratulations goes to Charles Bagby for winning third place in the National Mathematical Contest.

We are finally nearing our goal. We are well prepared with the knowledge and skills from our junior courses to start our senior year. We are very proud of the progress we have made, and we certainly plan to keep up the good work.

Mrs. Barron, junior class advisor, and Bobby Cole, junior class president, discuss plans for the first class meeting and coming year.

Sophomores Excel

At last we were Sophomores! The decision of choosing our course was most important to us this year. Some chose the commercial course and enjoyed typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, office practice, and business arithmetic. Others chose the classical course with the romance of foreign languages. While others became scientific minded through their studies in the scientific course. In the scientific as well as the classical course we furthered our study in mathematics.

This year offered to us extra activities in clubs and athletics. The revised cheerleading program gave Sophomores a better chance to participate. We were proud that five members from our class have led the cheering. The girls selected to serve the B-Team were Nancy Teem, Linda Smith, Joye Lewis, and Patty Boswell. Alicia Clotfelter was elected to the Varsity.

Our Sophomore campaign managers worked industriously during the Valentine Ball. They were Pat Lockamy for Lloyd Shankles and Kay Carson for Carole Noble. With support of our class, Carole was elected Queen of the Valentine Ball.

This year we have broadened our participation in school functions. We enjoyed many dances and parties as upper classmen. This was our midway mark. We have made the final adjustment to senior high school. Every experience will always remain in our memories.

Freshmen Strive

At last we felt we really belonged. We were Freshmen this year. The change of classes on each hour was familiar to us and we were finally a part of the senior high school

The year held many wonderful memories for us. We returned to school in September to face many new and challenging subjects. We had general science, algebra I, English I, civics, physical education, and the girls had home economics while the boys took shop

We enjoyed football games during the fall, feeling the first chills of the coming winter. In November we elected Sue Abercrombie and Linda Cain to the annual Homecoming Court

We survived semester tests in January and began anew, struggling to improve ourselves and get the most from our studies. In February we elected as our Valentine candidates Connie Wallace who chose as her campaign manager Nancy Gault and Rusty Reeves and his campaign manager Jal Warne. We worked very hard and were proud when Rusty was crowned King of the Valentine Ball

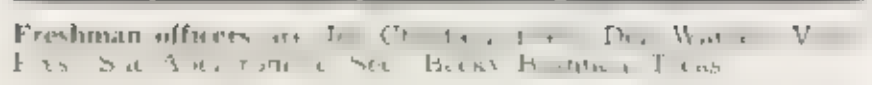

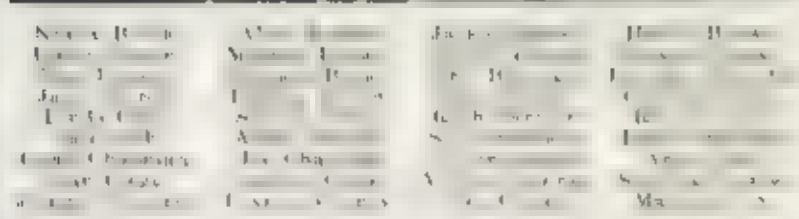

At the end of the year we chose our study for the next years. We had our choice between a commercial, scientific, and classical course. Our very prosperous Freshman year will remain in our memories as a foundation for our High School career

Sub-Frosh Learn

Even though this is our first year at Marietta High School, we've already collected a great deal of memories that will remain with us through the years.

We'll never forget that first day of changing classes and a different teacher for every subject. We soon, however, settled ourselves to the changes. Our subjects consist of science, math, geography, English, home economics for girls and mechanical drawing for boys. We have learned to appreciate each of them in their own field.

We enjoyed the many activities of our own apart from the senior high school. We had our own chapel programs this year. One was a talent show in which members of our class displayed their talent. We were proud of our eighth grade football team. They won two out of their four games.

The Valentine Ball was another new experience for us. Marvin Young and Karen Brown were elected Mister and Miss Eighth Grade. The whole class worked hard to support our candidates.

We have enjoyed coming to Marietta High School this year. We have made many new friends whom we'll remember during the rest of our high school days. We're now ready for the big step into senior high school. We are looking forward to doing our part to keep Marietta High School standards on top.
